Color Woodcut International Chazen Museum of Art, 2006 Color woodcut printmaking was not new to Britain America or Japan in the late eighteenth century Yet after Japan was opened to the West in 1854 and deeper cultural exchange began Japanese prints captured the European and American imagination The fresh colors simplicity of materials and departure from traditional compositions entranced western artists and the public alike Likewise Japanese audiences and artists were intrigued by the styles and techniques of western art which was broadly available in Japan by the end of the nineteenth century Artists there created images of the strange foreigners and imagined what American cities looked like By the beginning of the twentieth century artists were not content to merely imagine what the other side of the world looked like As prints traveled around the globe for study so did artists and with them spread the tricks and techniques of color woodblock printmaking as well as appreciation for the prints Woodblock printmakers in the West started to investigate Japanese processes and Japanese publishers began to seriously seek out the print market outside of Japan Important themes began to emerge scenes of nature and old fashioned architecture outnumbered modern city views and images of animals were nearly as popular as those of human figures Imagery was often idyllic and beautiful attractive to an international audience Twentieth century art however moves at a furious pace and the ferment of the international woodcut style quickly ran its course Artists appropriated what they needed from the color woodcut then developed techniques subjects and styles in their own ways An ever expanding range of prints became indebted to the artists of the previous generation who had reinvigorated woodblock printmaking styles and practices around the world This full color catalogue includes many prints from this colorful exhibition and shows how the progression of styles became more similar as international artists learned from and competed with each other then stylistically diverged as artists of each country took what they learned in new directions The three essays each focus on the influences and contributions made to the international style by three countries Japan Britain and America Dictionary of Women Artists: Introductory surveys ; Artists, A-I Delia Gaze,1997 First Published in 1997

Electrifying Design Sarah Schleuning,Cindi Strauss,Sarah Horne,Martha MacLeod,Berry Lowden Perkins,2021-01-01 An unprecedented survey of modern lighting design foregrounding its materials innovators and far reaching influence Offering the first comprehensive history of lighting design from the 20th and 21st centuries Electrifying Design A Century of Lighting explores how lighting has been integral to the development of modern design both in terms of aesthetics and technological advances. This fascinating book outlines the key aspects of lighting as a unique and creative artistic discipline and examines themes such as different typologies, the quality of light, and the evolution of the bulb. A series of essays by Sarah Schleuning and Cindi Strauss showcase lighting designs from different time periods and geographic locations and feature the work of significant figures including Poul Henningsen, Ingo Maurer, and Gino Sarfatti. With over 130 illustrations of functional and sometimes fantastical designs, a historical timeline, and comprehensive artist biographies, this handsome volume expands our understanding of an understudied but influential art form and demonstrates lighting's central role as both an expression of and a catalyst for innovations in modern and contemporary design. Published in association with the Museum of Fine Arts, Houston Exhibition Schedule: Museum of Fine Arts, Houston, February 21–May 16, 2021; High Museum of Art, Atlanta, July 2–September 26, 2021.

Global Modern Art Margaret A. Richardson, 2025-08-29. This accessible foundational volume explores how modern art developed around the world by comparing contexts and artistic production in Europe, the Americas, Asia, and Africa from the 1850s through the 1960s. To provide a broader, more comprehensive view of modern art, both chronological and thematic approaches will be used, and selections from all regions of the world will be included: from Africa, Asia, the Americas, as well as Europe. Each section begins with an overview of the region, leading into more detailed case studies of specific countries, historical contexts, including their cultural and aesthetic values, and the ways in which cultures have interacted with regional neighbors and outside forces. Examples of specific artists and groups will be discussed for each country and will illuminate themes that illustrate cultural distinctions and connect to broader modern trends traced throughout the text. This book will be of interest to students and scholars working in art history, modernism, globalization, and decolonization.
