There is a lot of talk about the importance of the environment. But what does it mean to be environmentally responsible? It means taking care of the planet and the people who live on it. It means using resources wisely and not wasting them. It means treating others with respect and kindness. It means being a good citizen and contributing to the community. It means being a responsible parent and teacher. It means being a responsible leader. It means being a responsible human being.

The United States government's treatment of the Jews was a true "disaster" and it was not only the Jews who suffered. The US was in a position to help the Jews and the people of Europe, but it did not. The US was not a "democratic" country and it was not a "free" country. The US was a "capitalist" country and it was not a "socialist" country. The US was a "Christian" country and it was not a "Jewish" country. The US was a "white" country and it was not a "black" country. The US was a "male" country and it was not a "female" country. The US was a "young" country and it was not an "old" country. For an entire half century, physicians and health care professionals have been told that smoking is the best way to achieve longevity. But now, a new scientific understanding about cancer-related risks is coming. One new landmark discovery is that, just simply, it's better to abstain. In fact, according to the World Health Organization, smoking causes more deaths than any other preventable cause. And that's not all. Smoking is also linked to heart disease, lung cancer, and many other health problems. So, if you're a smoker, it's time to quit. If you're not a smoker, it's time to stay that way. The good news is that you can quit at any time, and you can do it on your own terms. The bad news is that you can't go back. So, if you're a smoker, it's time to quit. If you're not a smoker, it's time to stay that way. The good news is that you can quit at any time, and you can do it on your own terms. The bad news is that you can't go back. These countries' economic contributions have been so limited as to be almost negligible, but even they are likely to be reduced, since governments have the capacity to take the power away from business community groups that represent interests in the economy. The fact of business and non-business groups being given government consultation about the new effects will not all reduce their ability to influence the country's future. Their participation could, in contrast, make them an even more active part of government deliberations on these
