representative range of recent fiction providing a sense of the rich diversity of the field and of its key themes and modes of writing Introduces students to a variety of critical approaches to and debates concerning contemporary American fiction Encourages reflection on the nature of national gender ethnic and generic identities Discourses of Postcolonialism in Contemporary British Children's Literature Blanka Grzegorzczak, 2014-10-03 This book considers how contemporary British children's books engage with some of the major cultural debates of recent years and how they resonate with the current preoccupations and tastes of the white mainstream British reading public A central assumption of this volume is that Britain's imperial past continues to play a key role in its representations of race identity and history The insistent inclusion of questions relating to colonialism and power structures in recent children's novels exposes the complexities and contradictions surrounding the fictional treatment of race relations and ethnicity Postcolonial children's literature in Britain has been inherently ambivalent since its cautious beginnings it is both transgressive and authorizing both undercutting and excluding Grzegorzczak considers the ways in which children's fictions have worked with and against particular ideologies of race The texts analyzed in this collection portray ethnic minorities as complex hybrid products of colonialism global migrations and the ideology of multiculturalism By examining the ideological content of these novels Grzegorzczak demonstrates the centrality of the colonial past to contemporary British writing for the young The Contemporary British Historical Novel M. Boccardi, 2009-06-25 A detailed study of an increasingly popular genre this book offers readings of a group of significant and representative works drawing on a range of interpretative strategies to examine the ways in which the contemporary historical novel engages with questions of nation and identity to illuminate Britain's post-imperial condition Contemporary Poetry Nerys Williams, 2011-04-06 Discussing the work of more than 60 poets from the US UK Ireland Australia New Zealand and the Caribbean from Sujata Bhatt to M Philip NourbeSe and from John Ashbery to Eliot Weinberger Nerys Williams guides students through the key ideas and movements in the study of poetry today With reference to original manifestos and web-based experiments as well as the role of information culture in shaping and distributing poetry globally this book engages with the full vitality of the contemporary poetry scene Key Features Wide topic range from performance to politics from lyric expression to ecopoetics and from multilingual poetries to electronic writing enables provocative thematic links to be made Discussion of global Englishes dialects and idiolects aimed at those studying poetry on postcolonial literature and contemporary poetics courses Contemporary relevance relates poetry to reporting on global conflict including the impact of the Iraq War Student resources include a chronology web resources a glossary questions for discussion and a guide to further reading British Fiction and the Cold War A. Hammond, 2013-09-19 This book offers a unique analysis of the wide-ranging responses of British novelists to the East-West conflict Hammond analyses the treatment of such geopolitical currents as communism nuclearism clandestinity decolonisation and US superpowerdom and explores the literary forms which writers developed to capture the complexities of the age Contemporary American

Drama Annette Saddik, 2007-09-13 This book explores the development of contemporary theatre in the United States in its historical political and theoretical dimensions. It focuses on representative plays and performance texts that experiment with form and content, discussing influential playwrights and performance artists such as Tennessee Williams, Adrienne Kennedy, Sam Shepard, Tony Kushner, Charles Ludlum, Anna Deavere Smith, Karen Finley, and Will Power alongside avant-garde theatre groups. Saddik traces the development of contemporary drama since 1945 and discusses the cross-cultural impact of postwar British and European innovations on American theatre from the 1950s to the present day in order to examine the performance of American identity. She argues that contemporary American theatre is primarily a postmodern drama of inclusion and diversity that destabilizes the notion of fixed identity and questions the nature of reality. A.S. Byatt Mariadele Boccardi, 2013-02-15 This comprehensive new study offers a detailed analysis of all of Byatt's fiction and also discusses her critical output. Mariadele Boccardi examines Byatt's work in the light of postmodern concerns with language, narrative, and self-referentiality.
