The Architects' Journal ,2002 Experiential Landscape Kevin Thwaites,Ian Simkins,2006-12-05 Incorporating a review of key philosophical and theoretical themes and offering a socially responsive design vocabulary Kevin Thwaites and Ian M Simkins provide the reader with a greater understanding of the human environment relationship The Oxford Handbook of the Archaeology of Ritual and Religion Timothy Insoll,2011-10-28 The Oxford Handbook of the Archaeology of Ritual and Religion provides a comprehensive overview by period and region of the relevant archaeological material in relation to theory methodology definition and practice Although as the title indicates the focus is upon archaeological investigations of ritual and religion by necessity ideas and evidence from other disciplines are also included among them anthropology ethnography religious studies and history The Handbook covers a global span Africa Asia Australasia Europe and the Americas and reaches from the earliest prehistory the Lower and Middle Palaeolithic to modern times In addition chapters focus upon relevant themes ranging from landscape to death from taboo to water from gender to rites of passage from ritual to fasting and feasting Written by over sixty specialists renowned in their respective fields the Handbook presents the very best in current scholarship and will serve both as a comprehensive introduction to its subject and as a stimulus to further research Domestic Architecture and the Use of Space Susan Kent,1993-06-25 Domestic Architecture and the Use of Space investigates the relationship between the built environment and the organisation of space The contributors are classical and prehistoric archaeologists anthropologists and architects who from their different backgrounds are able to provide some important and original insights into this relationship Sacred Gates Sarah Coleman,AI,2025-02-27 Sacred Gates explores the profound symbolism of gates and doorways in religious traditions revealing them as more than mere architectural features These divine doorways represent access to the sacred thresholds of transformation and boundaries between realms Understanding gate symbolism offers insights into how faiths conceptualize the sacred the profane and transitions between spiritual states For example the gates of Jerusalem in the Old Testament and the gates of Heaven in the Book of Revelation are not just physical locations but potent symbols within Jewish and Christian theology The book approaches this topic through religious studies art history and architectural symbolism drawing from biblical studies and comparative religion It begins by introducing the gate as a universal symbol found in mythology and ancient architecture It then analyzes specific examples from major religious traditions examining biblical accounts and exploring how gates function in rituals and temple architecture Sacred Gates culminates by considering contemporary interpretations of these symbols and discussing their ethical implications Books In Print 2004-2005 Ed Bowker Staff,Staff Bowker, Ed,2004

Architecture, Islam, and Identity in West Africa Michelle Apotsos,2016-05-20 Architecture Islam and Identity in West Africa shows you the relationship between architecture and Islamic identity in West Africa The book looks broadly across Muslim West Africa and takes an in depth study of the village of Larabanga a small Muslim community in Northern

Ghana to help you see how the built environment encodes cultural history through form material and space creating an architectural narrative that outlines the contours of this distinctive Muslim identity Apotsos explores how modern technology heritage and tourism have increasingly affected the contemporary architectural character of this community revealing the village s current state of social cultural and spiritual flux More than 60 black and white images illustrate how architectural components within this setting express the distinctive narratives value systems and realities that make up the unique composition of this Afro Islamic community Exploring the Lived World Christopher M.
