Contemporary Images Of Christian Ministry:

Contemporary Images of Christian Ministry Donald E. Messer, 1989 Explains five contemporary images of ministry as a first step toward developing a personal vision wounded healer servant leader political mystic practical theologian enslaved liberator Ministry Between Miracles Thomson K. Mathew, 2002-12 Multi-Congregation Ministry Grundy Malcolm, 2015-07-02 Local church life is changing radically and clergy deployment with it Multi congregational groupings are increasingly the norm with fewer stipendiary clergy As ministry increasingly becomes the responsibility of local congregations and priesthood more about supervision this guide explores the theology of this model and how it works in practice Leadership and Oversight Malcolm Grundy, 2011-01-20 An examination of the role and work of bishops for today and tomorrow exploring how ministries of great responsibility might shape the future Biblical Pastors Were Not and Are Not Ceos. James D. Martin, 2020-06-02 The emergence of the pastor Chief Executive Officer CEO position in churches today has become widely acceptable in Mega and Meta churches Recent studies have not explored this issue David Fisher acknowledges that in the 21st century being a pastor presents major challenges because it leads to professional and personal identity crisis resulting from secular and ecclesial challenges Studies have supported the idea that there is the need for church leaders to adopt the secular models of leadership and several noted authors have shown that churches today have become like other organizations that have to market their products This is a problematic interpretation because leadership in modern churches has gone beyond the biblical and theological definitions of becoming shepherds of their flock and servants of God In the search for an effective pastoral leadership role this paper will explore the contemporary definition of pastoral leadership and compare it with what the scriptures say concerning the elders and servants of God assigned the duty of being shepherds of their flock Ending Hunger Now George Stanley McGovern, Bob Dole, Donald E. Messer, Veteran statesmen George McGovern and Robert Dole here find common cause with theologian and activist Donald Messer in this powerful testimony and appeal to people of faith They are each convinced we can overcome global hunger now and their informed strategic impassioned thoughts encourage and equip This book brings together their disparate yet powerful voices behind a shared conviction that helping the millions who lack basic provision for food has become a religious imperative and human priority Writing for congregations and individuals of faith McGovern Dole and Messer appeal to the biblical theological and ethical foundations of action against hunger Virtue as Consent to Being Phil Zylla, 2010-12-01 Virtue theory has become an important development in Christian ethics Efforts are made in this volume to bring pastoral theology into conversation with these developments This book probes the philosophical theology of Jonathan Edwards who proposed that virtue is a form of beauty defined as consent to being This leads to the notion of compassion as ontological consent Since language is the vehicle by which our experiences are conveyed the book probes the issue of how moral vision is expressed in experience near language through parable poem and lament Moral vision is articulated most adequately through such language and finding it is a kind of quest The last chapter is a proposal for a mature pastoral theology of virtue as an expansion of Edwards's concept of consent to being from the vantage point of pastoral theology A dynamic vision of virtue requires some connection between the experience of suffering and the inward striving toward the greatest good The essence of virtue can be best understood from a pastoral theological perspective as the relational dynamic of suffering with another human being

Out of the Office Robert D Cornwall, 2017-04-13 Theology is often seen as a discussion of dry doctrines suitable mostly for academic institutions but separated from the practice of faith In this third volume of the Academy of Parish Clergy's Conversations in Ministry series Dr Bob Cornwall church historian theologian and pastor shows the ways in which one's theology shapes one's ministry in the church and in the world Besides discussing the theological roots of ministry and mission this book is firmly placed in the 21st century looking at the virtual world as our parish as well as more traditional connections Practical Systematic Spiritual Down to earth If you are looking for a way to put more life focus and meaning into your ministry as a pastor or church leader this is the book for you

Research in the Social Scientific Study of Religion Joanne Marie Greer, David O. Moberg, 2001-04 Various articles are presented covering psychological sociological and cross cultural topics or relevance to religious spiritual researchers and academics

Research in the Social Scientific Study of Religion, Volume 11 Joanne Marie Greer, David O. Moberg, 2021-11-22 The purpose of this book is to provide an outlet for original research articles examining the role and value of religious and spiritual constructs across the social sciences The aim of the series is to include an international and interfaith voice to this research dialogue An effort is made to be interdisciplinary and academically eclectic The articles in each volume represent a wide array of perspectives and research projects Most of the articles report the findings of quantitative or qualitative investigations but some deal with methodology theory or applications of social science studies in the field of religion and some are applied demonstrating the relevance of the social sciences to religious organizations and their clergy The value of the volume is that it gives to researchers in this area a broad perspective on the issues and methods of religious research across a spectrum of academic disciplines The aim of the book is to stimulate a creative integrative dialogue that will enhance interdisciplinary research
