Contemporary Views on the Holocaust R.L. Braham, 1983-07-31 This book is the second in a series of studies published under the auspices of the Institute for Holocaust Studies of the Graduate School and University Center of The City University of New York Like the first book it is an outgrowth of the lectures and special studies sponsored by the institute during the 1981-82 and 1982-83 academic years This volume is divided into five parts Part I Ethics and the Holocaust contains a pioneering investigation of one of the most neglected areas in Holocaust studies Francine Klagsbrun a well known writer and popular lecturer provides an erudite overview of the value of life in Jewish thought and tradition With full understanding of the talmudic scholars position on Jewish ethics and using concrete examples of the life and death dilemmas that confronted many Jews in their concentration camp experiences Klagsbrun provides dramatic evidence of the triumph of moral and ethical principles over the forces of evil during the Holocaust this darkest period in Jewish history The next two chapters grouped under the heading The Allies and the Holocaust deal with the failure of the Western Allies to respond to the desperate needs of the persecuted Jews of Europe during the Second World War The first is by Professor Bela Vago an authority on the Holocaust and East Central European history at the University of Haifa

Genocide and Retribution R.L. Braham, 2012-12-06 During the dark years of the Holocaust many of the millions of labor and concentration camp victims were sustained in their struggle for survival by the hope that their tormentors would not escape retribution This expectation was reinforced by the warnings issued by the statesmen of the anti Axis coalition and the declarations of the United States Great Britain and the USSR Shortly after the cessation of hostilities war crimes trials were indeed initiated in all parts of liberated Europe Many of the accused were indicted among other things for crimes committed against Jews People's tribunals for the prosecution of war crimes and crimes against humanity were also established in Romania a country that extricated itself from the Axis Alliance on 23 August 1944 The Romanian people's tribunals were set up and operated under the provisions of Law No 312 issued by the Ministry of Justice on 21 April 1945 One of these tribunals was established in Cluj Kolozsvár and entrusted primarily with the prosecution of those involved in the violation of the rights of people living in Northern Transylvania the part of the province that was transferred to Hungary under the terms of the Second Vienna Award August 1940 and which remained under Hungarian rule from early September 1940 until its liberation by Soviet Romanian forces in the fall of 1944 The crimes committed against the citizens of Northern Transylvania both within and outside the province were the subject of two major trials

Studies on the Holocaust Randolph L. Braham, 2000 Few aspects of American military history have been as vigorously debated as Harry Truman's decision to use atomic bombs against Japan In this carefully crafted volume Michael Kort describes the wartime circumstances and thinking that form the context for the decision to use these weapons surveys the major debates related to that decision and provides a comprehensive collection of key primary source documents that illuminate the behavior of the United States and Japan during the closing days of World War II Kert opens with a summary of the debate over Hiroshima as it has evolved since 1945 He then provides a historical overview of the events in question beginning with the decision and program to build the atomic bomb Detailing the sequence of events leading to Japan's surrender he revisits the decisive battles of the Pacific War and the motivations of American and Japanese leaders Finally Kert examines ten key issues in the discussion of Hiroshima and guides readers to relevant primary source documents scholarly books and articles

Reflections of the Holocaust in Art and Literature Randolph L. Braham, 1990 The Fallacy of Race and the Shoah Naomi Kramer, Ronald Headland, 1998-11-25 Naomi Kramer and Ronald Headland approach the universal issues that inevitably arise in discussing the Holocaust evil courage human dignity moral responsibility and the existential qualities of humankind through individual experience Consisting of two main parts the book explores one individual's experience during the Shoah and the historical context in which these experiences occurred It includes a comprehensive historical summary of the Shoah and represents a succinct synopsis of existing secondary literature and primary sources A bibliography and extensive glossary of terms relating to both Jewish life and the Shoah are included Published in English

As the Witnesses Fall Silent: 21st Century Holocaust Education in Curriculum, Policy and Practice Zehavit Gross, E. Doyle Stevick, 2015-03-16 This volume represents the most comprehensive collection ever produced of empirical research on Holocaust education around the world It comes at a critical time as the world observes the 70th anniversary of the liberation of Auschwitz We are now at a turning point as the generations that witnessed and survived the Shoah are slowly passing on Governments are charged with ensuring that this defining event of the 20th century takes its rightful place in the schooling and the historical consciousness of their peoples The policies and practices of Holocaust education around the world are as diverse as the countries that grapple with its history and its meaning Educators around the globe struggle to reconcile national histories and memories with the international realities of the Holocaust and its implications for the present These efforts take place at a time when scholarship about the Holocaust itself has made great strides In this book these issues are framed by some of the leading voices in the field including Elie Wiesel and Yehuda Bauer and then explored by many distinguished scholars who represent a wide range of expertise Holocaust education is of such significance so rich in meaning so powerful in content and so diverse in practice that the need for extensive high quality empirical research is critical This book provides exactly that

Romanian Nationalists and the Holocaust Randolph L. Braham, 1998 The highly publicized obscenity trial of Radclyffe Hall's The Well of Loneliness 1928 is generally recognized as the crystallizing moment in the construction of a visible modern English lesbian culture marking a great divide between innocence and deviance private and public New Woman and Modern Lesbian Yet despite unreserved agreement on the importance of this cultural moment previous studies often reductively distort our reading of the formation of early twentieth century lesbian identity either by neglecting to examine in detail the developments leading up to the ban or by framing events in too broad a context against other cultural phenomena Fashioning Sapphism locates the novelist Radclyffe Hall and other prominent lesbians including the pioneer in women's policing Mary Allen the artist Gluck and the writer Bryher within English modernity through the multiple sites of law sexology fashion and literary and visual representation thus tracing the emergence of a modern English lesbian subculture in the first two decades of the twentieth century Drawing on extensive new archival research the book interrogates anew a range of myths long accepted without question and still in circulation concerning to cite only a few the extent of homophobia in the 1920s the strategic deployment of sexology against sexual minorities and the rigidity of certain cultural codes to denote lesbianism in public culture
