Contesting Knowledge Museums And Indigenous Perspectives:

Contesting Knowledge Susan Sleeper-Smith, 2009 This interdisciplinary and international collection of essays illuminates the importance and effects of Indigenous perspectives for museums The contributors challenge and complicate the traditionally close colonialist connections between museums and nation states and urge more activist and energized roles for museums in the decades ahead

Decolonizing Museums Amy Lonetree, 2012 Museum exhibitions focusing on Native American history have long been curator controlled However a shift is occurring giving Indigenous people a larger role in determining exhibition content In Decolonizing Museums Amy Lonetree examines the co

Self-Determined First Nations Museums and Colonial Contestation Robert Hudson, Shannon Woodcock, 2022-04-03 Self Determined First Nations Museums and Colonial Contestation explores Indigenous practices of curation object repatriation and cross cultural community engagement in a dynamic Koori museum Grounded in the fact that Gunai Kurnai people have never ceded sovereignty the text reorients dominant temporal and colonial approaches of museum studies to document and theorise Gunai Kurnai self presentation and community engagement in the Krowathunkooloong Keeping Place Researched and co authored by the Cultural Manager of the Keeping Place Gunai Kurnai Monero Ngarigo man Robert Hudson and white Historian Shannon Woodcock the book traces the temporal social and cultural considerations of the Elders who curated the permanent exhibition in the early 1990s Discussing community management of a collection growing through the ongoing repatriation of tools art and Ancestor remains the text also explores how Robert Hudson engages with visitors to the Keeping Place and local colonial history museums and theorises the power of Gunai Kurnai work with individuals and institutions in the small museum context Finally Hudson and Woodcock demonstrate that the Keeping Place articulates sophisticated Gunai Kurnai grounded methodologies of museum practice in relation to international critical Indigenous studies scholarship Self Determined First Nations Museums and Colonial Contestation provides a vital case study of an Indigenous museum space written from an inside perspective As such the book will be essential reading for scholars and students engaged in the study of museums and heritage Indigenous peoples decolonisation race anthropology culture and history

Useful Objects Reed Gochberg, 2021 Useful Objects examines the cultural history of nineteenth century American museums through the eyes of writers visitors and collectors Throughout this period museums gradually transformed from encyclopedic cabinets to more specialized public institutions These changes prompted wider debates about how museums determine what objects to select preserve and display and who gets to decide Drawing on a wide range of archival materials and accounts in fiction guidebooks and periodicals this text shows how the challenges facing nineteenth century museums continue to resonate in debates about their role in American culture today

This Is Our Life Cara Krmpotich, Laura Peers, the Haida Repatriation Committee and staff of the Pitt Rivers Museum and British Museum, 2013-11-01 In September 2009 twenty one members of the Haida Nation went to Oxford and London to work with several hundred heritage treasures at the Pitt Rivers Museum and the British Museum The encounter set a new course for the relationships between the custodians of these cultural artifacts and the Indigenous people for whom the objects are a direct link to their past Emotional and illuminating tense and challenging it was a transformative visit that none would soon forget Featuring contributions from Haida and museum participants and a rich selection of illustrations This Is Our Life details the remarkable story of the Haida Project A fascinating look at the meaning behind objects the value of repatriation and the impact of historical trajectories like colonialism this is also a tender story of the understanding that grew between the Haida visitors and museum staff Beautifully written and illustrated This Is Our Life offers a compelling view of the transformative potential of a conversation hundreds of years in the making Huihui Jeffrey Carroll, Brandy Nālani McDougall, Georganne Nordstrom, 2014-12-31 This groundbreaking anthology is the first to navigate the interconnections between the rhetorics and aesthetics of the Pacific Like the bright and multifaceted constellation for which it is named Huihui Rhetorics and Aesthetics in the Pacific showcases a variety of genres and cross genre forms critical essays poetry short fiction speeches photography and personal reflections that explore a wide range of subjects from Disney's Aulani Resort to the Bishop Museum from tiki souvenirs to the Dusky Maiden stereotype from military recruitment to colonial silencing from healing lands to healing words and music from decolonization to sovereignty These works go beyond conceiving of Pacific rhetorics and aesthetics as being always and only in response to a colonizing West and or East Instead the authors emphasize the importance of situating their work within indigenous intellectual political and cultural traditions and innovations of the Pacific Taken together this anthology threads ancestral and contemporary discursive strategies questions colonial and oppressive representations and seeks to articulate an empowering decolonized future for all of Oceania Representing several island and continental nations the contributing authors include Albert Wendt Haunani Kay Trask Mililani Trask Chantal Spitz Jonathan Kay Kamakawiwo'ole Osorio Flora Devatine Kalena Silva Steven Winduo Alice Te Punga Somerville Selina Tusitala Marsh ku ualoha ho omanawanui Craig Santos Perez Gregory Clark Chelle Pahiui Dan Taulapapa McMullin Michael Puleloa Lisa King and Steven Gin Collectively their words guide us over ocean routes like the great wa'a va'a waka proa and sakman once navigated by the ancestors of Oceania now navigated again by their descendants Museums and Anthropology in the Age of Engagement Christina Kreps, 2019-10-18 Museums and Anthropology in the Age of Engagement considers changes that have been taking place in museum anthropology as it has been responding to pressures to be more socially relevant useful and accountable to diverse communities Based on the author's own research and applied work over the past 30 years the book gives examples of the wide ranging work being carried out today in museum anthropology as both an academic scholarly field and variety of applied public anthropology While it examines major trends that characterize our current age of engagement the book also critically examines the public role of museums and anthropology in colonial and postcolonial contexts namely in the US the Netherlands and Indonesia Throughout the book Kreps questions what purposes and interests museums and anthropology

serve in these different times and places Museums and Anthropology in the Age of Engagement is a valuable resource for readers interested in an historical and comparative study of museums and anthropology and the forms engagement has taken It should be especially useful to students and instructors looking for a text that provides in one volume a history of museum anthropology and methods for doing critical reflexive museum ethnography and collaborative work Museums as Ritual Sites Lieke Wijnia,James S. Bielo,2024-10-14 Museums as Ritual Sites critically examines the assumption that museums inherently function as ritual sites and in turn are poised to exert influence on cultural and societal change Bringing together a diverse international group of interdisciplinary scholars and curators the volume celebrates and critically engages with Carol Duncan s seminal work Civilizing Rituals Presenting a wide ranging exploration of how museums function as liminal zones in broader societal contexts the book discusses major topics identified as functioning at the heart of the above mentioned paradigm shift diversity and inclusion consumption religion and tradition These topics are studied through the lens of their ritual implications in museum practice Presenting case studies on ethnographic art history community and memorial practices in museums the book reflects the diversity of the contemporary international museum field As such the volume presents a critical and updated revision of the ritual perspective on museums both as it was presented by Duncan and as it has since been developed in the field of museum studies Museums as Ritual Sites will be essential reading for academics and students working in museum studies heritage studies cultural anthropology religious studies and ritual studies Museums as Ritual Sites will also be of interest to those working across the humanities and social sciences who are interested in the intersection of museums or archives with indigeneity and decolonization First Nations, Museums, Narrations Alison K. Brown,2014-04-15 When the Franklin Motor Expedition set out across the Canadian Prairies to collect First Nations artifacts brutal assimilation policies threatened to decimate these cultures and extensive programs of ethnographic salvage were in place Despite having only three members the expedition amassed the largest single collection of Prairie heritage items currently held in a British museum In this book Alison K Brown draws together the multiple narratives that make up this encounter consulting descendants of the collectors and members of the affected First Nations and reviewing both expedition images and the artifacts themselves In doing so she explores the context within which the collection was made as well as the complex relationships between museums anthropologists and First Nations Accessibly written and vigorously researched First Nations Museums Narrations raises timely questions about the role of collections in the twenty first century and considers the way forward for indigenous peoples and the museums that house their cultural treasures Challenging History in the Museum Jenny Kidd,Sam Cairns,Alex Drago,Amy Ryall,2016-04-08 Challenging History in the Museum explores work with difficult contested and sensitive heritages in a range of museum contexts It is based on the Challenging History project which brings together a wide range of heritage professionals practitioners and academics to explore heritage and museum learning programmes in relation to difficult and controversial subjects The book is divided into four sections

Part I The Emotional Museum examines the balance between empathic and emotional engagement and an objective rational understanding of history Part II Challenging Collaborations explores the opportunities and pitfalls associated with collective inclusive representations of our heritage Part III Ethics Ownership Identity questions who is best qualified to identify represent and own these histories It challenges the concept of ownership and personal identification as a prerequisite to understanding and investigates the ideas and controversies surrounding this premise Part IV Teaching Challenging History helps us to explore the ethics and complexities of how challenging histories are taught The book draws on work countries around the world including Brazil Cambodia Canada England Germany Japan Northern Ireland Norway Scotland South Africa Spain and USA and crosses a number of disciplines Museum and Heritage Studies Cultural Policy Studies Performance Studies Media Studies and Critical Theory Studies It will also be of interest to scholars of Cultural History and Art History
