Contesting Performance Global Sites Of Research Performance Interventions:

Contesting Performance J. McKenzie, H. Roms, C. Wee, 2009-11-18 Contesting Performance is a collection of essays by international scholars that addresses the global development of performance research in the late twentieth and early twenty first centuries The collection functions as a critical reader on diverse approaches to studying performance that contest dominant paradigms of performance studies

Performance: A Critical Introduction Marvin Carlson, 2017-10-25 Since its original publication in 1996 Marvin Carlson's Performance: A Critical Introduction has remained the definitive guide to understanding performance as a theatrical activity It is an unparalleled exploration of the myriad ways in which performance has been interpreted its importance to disciplines from anthropology to linguistics and how it underpins essential concepts of human society In this comprehensively revised and updated third edition Carlson tackles the pressing themes and theories of our age with expanded coverage of the growth and importance of racial and ethnic performance the emergence of performance concerned with age and disability the popularity and significance of participatory and immersive theatre the crucial relevance of identity politics and cultural performance in the twenty first century Also including a fully updated bibliography and glossary this classic text is an invaluable touchstone for any student of performance studies theatre history and the performing and visual arts

Performance and the Global City D. Hopkins, K. Solga, 2013-10-15 Winner of the Association for Theatre in Higher Education Excellence in Editing Award 2016 Following the ground breaking Performance and the City this new volume explores what it means to create and experience urban performance as both an aesthetic and a political practice in the burgeoning world where cities are built by globalization and neoliberal capital

Performance Studies in Motion Atay Citron, Sharon Aronson-Lehavi, David Zerbib, 2014-02-27 Performance Studies in Motion offers multiple perspectives on the current field of performance studies and suggests its future directions Featuring new essays by pioneers Richard Schechner and Barbara Kirshenblatt Gimblett and by international scholars and practitioners it shows how performance can offer a new way of seeing the world and testifies to the dynamism of this discipline Beginning with an overview of the development of performance studies the essays offer new insights into contemporary experimental and postdramatic theatre participatory performance and museum exhibitions the performance of politicians political institutions and grassroots protest movements theatricality at war and in contemporary religious rituals and performative practices in therapy education and life sciences Employing original reflexive approaches to concrete case studies and situations contributors introduce a variety of applications of performance studies methodologies to contemporary culture art and society creating new interdisciplinary links between the arts humanities and social and natural sciences With studies from and about places as diverse as Austria Belgium China France Germany Israel Korea Palestine the Philippines Poland Rwanda and the USA Performance Studies in Motion showcases the vitality and breadth of the field today
