Sir Roger De Coverley Joseph Addison, 2017-03-07 Excerpt from Sir Roger De Coverley Essays From the Spectator Upon the death of my father I was resolved to travel into foreign countries and therefore left the University with the character of an odd unaccountable fellow that had a great deal of learning if I would but show it An insatiable thirst after knowledge carried me into all the countries of Europe in which there was anything new or strange to be seen nay to such a degree was my curiosity raised that having read the controversies of some great men concerning the antiquities of Egypt I made a voyage to Grand Cairo on purpose to take the measure of a pyramid and as soon as I had set myself right in that particular returned to my native country with great satisfaction About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

Sir Roger de Coverley Papers (Classic Reprint) Joseph Addison, 2015-07-05 Excerpt from Sir Roger De Coverley Papers The first of our society is a gentleman of Worcestershire of an ancient descent a baronet His name Sir Roger de Coverley His great grandfather was inventor of that famous country dance which is called after him All who know that shire are very well acquainted with the parts and merits of Sir Roger He is a gentleman that is very singular in his behavior but his singularities proceed from his good sense and are contradictions to the manners of the world only as he thinks the world is in the wrong However this humor creates him no enemies for he does nothing with sourness or obstinacy and his being unconfined to modes and forms makes him but the readier and more capable to please and oblige all who know him When he is in town he lives in Soho Square It is said he keeps himself a bachelor by reason he was crossed in love by a perverse beautiful widow of the next county to him About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art
