January 1, 2021

*This document supersedes
all previously dated job descriptions*

General Function

To provide the service of Custodian of the Church building and property and for such other duties and responsibilities as are itemized below.

Accountability

The Church Custodian is accountable to the operations committee, reporting through the convener of the committee. Issues requiring clarification/direction are to be discussed with the convener of operations committee.

In matters pertaining to Job Description, the Custodian is accountable to operations committee, through the Human Resources Committee (Presbyterian Church Book of Forms, Section 165).

As a paid employee or independent contractor, the Custodian is not permitted to serve on the Operations Committee.

Duties and Responsibilities

The Church Custodian will fulfill the following duties and responsibilities:

1. General

- Obtain a complete calendar of scheduled meetings and events. Cross-reference this with the weekly Church calendar to ensure that the church doors are opened and locked when needed.
- The Custodian may, on occasion, be responsible for setting up tables and chairs for non-member events (and member events if prearranged) at St. Andrew's Hespeler Church, and for the cleaning, take down and storage of the tables and chairs.
- Heating – Responsibility for the heating system includes reminding the Minister at the beginning of heating season and at the end of heating season that the settings of the thermostats are to be adjusted as appropriate to ensure comfort levels for services and event schedules, while at the same time recognizing the importance of cost efficiencies. The custodian is issued a key to the thermostat, which may be used only to adjust settings on a temporary basis e.g. for weddings, meetings, etc.
- Ensure that all Fire Exits are kept clear and kept closed at all times.
