The Art of Hospitality Implementation Guide Debi Nixon, Yvonne Gentile, 2020-05-19 Create a culture of radical hospitality that surprises and delights guests beyond their expectations Everybody Welcome: The Course Leader's Manual Bob Jackson, 2014-08-19 Everybody Welcome is the complete course to transform your church by improving your approach to newcomers Believing that welcoming is a ministry for every member of the church it offers guidance for your entire congregation and will help every individual play their part Hospitality and Community After Christendom Andrew Francis, 2012-09-01 This book aims to show how nurturing hospitality in the discipleship community leads to growth It seeks to re-examine the challenge biblically and in radical Christian movements presented by the pre Christendom church in its patterns of hospitality and community to so re-work these to be more effective in mission personally and corporately after Christendom The book re-examines Jesus' intentions the wider biblical material and congregational practices of sharing Communion as well as drawing on radical church history to demonstrate that despite increasing marginalization hospitality and community are essential to the church's nature well-being and mission It goes on to use many practical examples as well as leadership strategies to enable congregations to restore hospitality and community to its necessary place It also provides an accessible theology as well as some original liturgies to underpin Christian life as we move forward after Christendom

An Ethic of Hospitality Emily Jeptepkeny Choge, 2020-07-30 In our increasingly xenophobic world countries are turning away refugees and immigrants Based on the situation in Kenya this book offers a countercultural ethic of hospitality and welcome to the stranger an ethic fraught with dangers and yet filled with great opportunities for transforming our world Drawing on the scriptural pilgrim motif and specifically on the book of Hebrews this study paints a picture of refugees not only as needy strangers to be herded into camps but as brothers and sisters who bring with them treasures and talents that can enrich our understanding of our Christian identity and mission as pilgrims in the world The hospitality practice seen in Hebrews offers hope and promise not only for refugees themselves but also for the pilgrim church. Like the ancient heroes of faith portrayed in Hebrews we too live as pilgrims and aliens who await with hope the city whose architect and founder is God. Refugees in fact teach us how to live our pilgrim identity; they become teachers not only for the church in Kenya but also for the body of Christ worldwide. Mission as Hospitality Edward L. Smither, 2021-01-05. God is a missionary God. God is also hospitable in his nature. He makes his enemies friends and invites them to intimate communion. The mission of God in Scripture often occurs through hospitality when God's people encounter the not yet people of God at table or in hospitable environments and invite them to believe. This motif of mission as hospitality plays out through the Old and New Testament Scriptures and through the Eucharist. It can also be observed through the witness of monks and contemporary missionaries who embraced a hospitable approach to mission. For the church to participate in God's mission today, a vision to win, conquer or change the world should be exchanged for a conviction to welcome the stranger and make room for others while proclaiming the gospel that is to imitate the hospitable God in mission. An Improbable Feast - the surprising dynamic of hospitality at the heart of multifaith chaplaincy Geoff Boyce, 2011-01-05. How are we all going to live together in spite of all our differences? Editor Geoff Boyce has collected anecdotes from fellow members of his non-Aboriginal church congregation, shedding light on the yawning gap between Australia's First and Second Peoples while also revealing their underlying yearning for justice and mutuality. Back cover. Born of Water, Born of Spirit Sheryl A.

Kujawa-Holbrook, 2010-04-07. What does the church look like if we take the ministry of the baptized, the priesthood of all believers seriously? How are congregations transformed when the church supports and affirms the ministry of all the baptized, particularly in small congregations without the means to hire a seminary-trained pastor? And what ecclesial structures and educational models need to emerge in the next decades to assist these small congregations in the recovery of baptismal living and their own vitality? Sheryl Kujawa Holbrook and Fredrica Harris Thompsett explore these questions as well as the variety of ways people in small congregations, many with no more than fifty members, are living out their baptism and the impact their actions are having on their congregations, judicatories and communities and the institutions that educate clergy. The authors argue that just because a community cannot pay a seminary-trained minister, a growing problem in remote regions, it does not mean that there is no ministry there. It does mean that we need to look at ministry and the church in a more expansive way. The stories of the congregations revealed in this book serve to inspire us about what is possible when we live intentionally as the reconciling presence of the body of Christ in the world. They also educate us about what will be needed in the years to come to lift up still more small congregations for their work in the larger community. Resources in Education, 2001.
