Unearthing Churchill's Secret Army Martin Mace,2012-12-19 The Special Operations Executive was one of the most secretive organizations of the Second World War its activities cloaked in mystery and intrigue The fate therefore of many of its agents was not revealed to the general public other than the bare details carved with pride upon the headstones and memorials of those courageous individuals Then in 2003 the first batch of SOE personal files was released by the National Archive Over the course of the following years more and more files were made available Now at last it is possible to tell the stories of all those agents that died in action These are stories of bravery and betrayal incompetence and misfortune of brutal torture and ultimately death Some died when their parachutes failed to open others swallowed their cyanide capsules rather than fall into the hands of the Gestapo many died in combat with the enemy most though were executed by hanging by shooting and even by lethal injection The bodies of many of the lost agents were never found destroyed in the crematoria of such places as Buckenwald Mauthausen and Natzweiler others were buried where they fell All of them should be
