The Oxford Handbook of Diversity in Organizations

Regine Bendl, Inge Bleijenbergh, Elina Henttonen, Albert J. Mills, 2015-11-12 In the last decades diversity and its management has become a feature of modern and postmodern organizations Different practices have spread around the globe focusing on the organizing and management of inclusion and exclusion of persons and identities based on different genders sexual orientations racial and ethnic backgrounds ages and disabilities as well as religious beliefs However although increasingly recognized as important the discourses of diversity are multifaceted and not without controversy Furthermore diversity management practices have the potential to reproduce both inclusion and exclusion The book presents the foundations of organizing and managing diversities offers multidisciplinary intersectional and critical analyses on key issues and opens up fresh perspectives in order to advance the diversity debate It also inspires new debates on diversity by encouraging scholars to broaden their research agendas and assists students and scholars to increase their understanding of the field and its current discussions The contributors are a team of leading diversity scholars from all over the world Writing Support for International Graduate Students Shyam Sharma, 2018-09-03 Using qualitative data collected from more than twenty universities across the US Writing Support for International Graduate Students describes and theorizes agency and advocacy driven practices programs and policies that are most effective in helping international students learn graduate level writing and communication skills It uses compelling narratives and cases to illustrate a variety of program models and support practices that fostered the students process of academic transition and success Employing an ecological framework the book seeks to advance academic conversation about how writing scholars instructors and program administrators as well as other academic service professionals working with this student body can formulate policies develop programs and implement practices that best help these students grow as writers and scholars in their disciplines Institutional Change and Power Asymmetry in the Context of Rural India Amar Patnaik, 2018-10-08 This book explains how to bring about institutional change and foster new institutional structures institution building by resolving power inequities in a rural ecosystem in India and advocates the identification of an appropriate institutional champion to make this happen The book develops a power asymmetry based framework and argues that a champion with the right attributes and the ability to convene people over a social issue can only succeed if he/she can resolve or reduce the deep rooted societal power asymmetries within that community It also presents four case studies that indicate how such social change is typically spread over a long period of time Adoptive Management Innovation Haifen Lin, 2018-04-03 This book discusses adoptive management innovation which has been successfully implemented in other areas It proposes a theory on this field by considering the importance and popularity of adoptive management innovation in China and around the globe and focusing on its nature It also establishes a process framework through which adoptive management innovation occurs explores how individual characteristics of individual managers affect their adoption decision examines the effects of a firm's dynamic capability on each phase of adoptive innovation and addresses how intangible management innovation supports the process of tangible product innovation to produce effects By exploring the process adoption decision drivers and effects of adoptive management innovation the book offers abundant applications for managerial practice On Writing Qualitative Research
