Baltic Facades Aldis Purs, 2013-02-15 Estonia Latvia and Lithuania are often grouped together as the Baltic States but these three Eastern European countries tied together historically are quite different. Although each is struggling to find its place within Europe and fighting to preserve its own identity, the idea of the Baltic States is a fa ade. In this book, Aldis Purs dispels the myth of a single coherent Baltic identity, presenting a radical new view of the region. Baltic Fa ades illuminates the uniqueness of these three countries and locates them within the larger context of European history, also revealing the similarities they share with the rest of the continent. He also examines the anxiety the people of Estonia, Latvia, and Lithuania feel about their own identities and how others see them. Giving equal weight to developments in politics, economics, and social and cultural trends, he places contemporary events in a longer perspective than traditional Cold War-inspired views of the region, tracing the countries under Soviet rule after the end of World War II through their declarations of independence in the early 1990s and their admission to the European Union in 2004. Baltic Fa ades is an enlightening look at these three separate though related Eastern European countries.

Art and Architecture in the Eastern Polish-Lithuanian Commonwealth (1697-1863) Urszula Szulakowska, 2022-04-25. This book explores the history of art and architecture in the Polish-Lithuanian Commonwealth from the 18th century to the uprising against the Russian occupation of 1863-64. It serves to introduce the English language reader to research produced by East European scholars. The geographical area under discussion consists of the modern nation states of Latvia, Lithuania, Belarus, and Ukraine, which from 1772 were incorporated into the empires of Russia, Austria, and Prussia. One of the major questions raised is what became of the old Commonwealth's artistic and cultural traditions under the rule of these alien powers. The book strives to do justice to the history of all the national groups involved, even though the region was heavily Polonised from the 16th century onwards. The art, architecture, and culture introduced from western Europe are analysed in their effects, not only on Polish culture but also on that of the Orthodox and Uniate Ruthenians, Ukrainians, on the Jewish settlement, and on those of the Karaime and Islamic Tatars. An additional concern is the history of art and architecture of the Baltic Germans in the Latvian region. The book suggests a critical approach involving alternative models to those of nationalistic schools of art. It is geography that dictates the writing of history rather than national identity.

A Concise History of Australia Stuart Macintyre, 2016. This fourth edition investigates the key factors, social, economic, and political, that continue to shape modern-day Australia.

Renaissance and Baroque Art and Culture in the Eastern Polish-Lithuanian Commonwealth (1506-1696) Urszula Szulakowska, 2019-01-29. This monograph serves as an introduction to the art, architecture, and literary culture of the Eastern Polish-Lithuanian Commonwealth in the 16th and 17th centuries. The geographical area under discussion comprises the regions of contemporary Lithuania, western Belarus, and western Ukraine. The introduction of the Renaissance and Baroque classical revival into these lands is considered here within the political context of nationalistic and religious loyalties, as well as economic status and class. The central discussion focuses on the issue of national identity and religious loyalty in the interrelation between the Byzantine inheritance of the Lithuanian and Ruthenian populace and the Polonizing Catholic influences.

entering from the west A close study is made of the royal noble and urban patronage of the richly diverse visual and literary modes developed in these two centuries as well as examining the cultural achievements of the many national groups in the Eastern Commonwealth including Ruthenians Lithuanians Poles Armenians Jews Karaite and Islamic Tatars A major issue explored here is the problem of restoring and conserving the vast amount of devastated material culture in these regions particularly in Belarus
