Family Life Education Carol A. Darling, Dawn Cassidy, Sharon M. Ballard, 2022-06-29 Contemporary family life educators operate within a wide range of settings and with increasingly varied populations and families In the fourth edition of Family Life Education Carol Darling and Dawn Cassidy are pleased to have Sharon Ballard join in the process of exposing readers to the diverse landscape of the field while laying a comprehensive research based and practical foundation for current and future family life educators The authors who are CFLE Certified consider the Certified Family Life Educator credential requirements of the National Council on Family Relations throughout the text Their broad overview of the field includes a brief history and discussion of family life education as an established profession New to this edition is the inclusion of several models that provide insight into the discipline and practice There is expanded information about working with diverse audiences and the skills needed to be a culturally competent family life educator The addition of the personal experiences and reflections of 17 family life educators working in a variety of settings provides a meaningful context to the continuing evolution and importance of family life education in society The authors incorporate theory research and practice while also providing guidelines for planning implementing and evaluating family life education programs Content on sexuality education relationship and marriage education and parenting education highlights some of the more prevalent trends and visible forms of family life education Comments from 35 international colleagues representing 27 countries and 6 continents facilitate understanding the role of family life education in various international settings The provision of interactive classroom exercises focuses on building awareness appreciation of diversity and global trends Discussion questions and activities encourage readers to examine issues and apply what they have learned

Transforming Early Head Start Home Visiting Bridget A. Walsh, Jennifer A. Mortensen, 2019-10-29 Research on home visiting shows that Early Head Start EHS home based programs benefit from additional training and resources that streamline philosophy and content In this essential guide Walsh and Mortensen propose that alignment with Family Life Education's FLE strengths based methodology results in greater consistency through a model of prevention education and collaboration with families This text is the first to outline linkages between FLE and EHS home visiting It explores a qualitative study of FLE integrated in a current EHS home based program and application of FLE methodology to home visiting topics This approach will influence professional practice and provide a foundation for developing evidence based home visiting practices Online content accompanies the text with videos demonstrating the FLE approach in action and discussion questions to encourage engagement with and understanding of the core material Transforming Early Head Start Home Visiting A Family Life Education Approach is essential reading for upper level undergraduate and masters students in family studies and early childhood education as well as practitioners working with children and families Family Life Education Stephen F. Duncan,H. Wallace Goddard,2016-04-20 A practical how to guide to developing implementing evaluating and sustaining effective family life education programs Drawing on the best scholarship and their own years of professional experience the authors of this thoroughly updated Third Edition begin by discussing the foundations of family life education and encourage readers to develop their own outreach philosophies The book then helps readers learn principles and methods for reaching out to the public and how to form and use community collaborations and use principles of social marketing to promote programs Handbook of Marriage and the Family Gary W. Peterson,Kevin R. Bush,2012-09-14 The third edition of Handbook of Marriage and the Family describes analyzes synthesizes and critiques the current research and theory about family relationships family structural variations and the role of families in society This updated Handbook provides the most comprehensive state of the art assessment of the existing knowledge of family life with particular attention to variations due to gender socioeconomic race ethnic cultural and life style diversity The Handbook also aims to provide the best synthesis of our existing scholarship on families that will be a primary source for scholars and professionals but also serve as the primary graduate text for graduate courses on family relationships and the roles of families in society In addition the involvement of chapter authors from a variety of fields including family psychology family sociology child development family studies public health and family therapy gives the Handbook a multidisciplinary and interdisciplinary framework Introduction to Human Development and Family Studies Bridget A.
