Elizabeth Hart, 2006-10-16 This anthology is the first of its kind In addition to opening up fresh perspectives on theatre studies with applications for dramatic criticism performance analysis acting practice audience response theatre history and other important areas the book sets the agenda for future work helping to map the emergence of this new approach Following a comprehensive introduction the contributors examine the interfaces between cognitive studies and Lacanian psychoanalysis phenomenology and communication theory different ideas from cognitive studies that open up the meanings of several plays the process of acting and the work of Antonio Damasio theatrical response the dynamics of perception and the riots that greeted the 1907 production of The Playboy of the Western World This original and authoritative work will be attractive to scholars and graduate students of drama theatre and performance      Eyes on Ice & No Blind Mice Saad Shaikh M. D., Saad Shaikh, 2007 A travelogue full of adventure A Place to Belong is the story of a young teenage boy's search for self worth and faith in a cruel world Paul Miller was eight years old when his parents took him on a mystifying zigzagging journey from Detroit to Florida to California and back again His father's tenuous grip on reality becomes as changeable as the landscapes they travel through Paul's simple questions are ignored or answered by the back of his Father's hand Paul jumps the roof tops of Detroit slums butts heads with the gangs of Los Angeles and gets caught up in a world of petty theft Life hangs by a thread the surprising kindness of a loving family a filthy motorist with a penchant for young boys the kiss of a young girl Along the way Noah a wise fisherman shows Paul that God isn't some imperious judge sitting on top of a throne but can become your best friend a buddy you can talk to But can such a simple view account for all the misery Paul experiences In this captivating and at turns humorous story a young man travels into the depths of despair and back again to find a place he can call home I got hooked and couldn't stop This is a splendidly written story and quite a story to tell So candid unpretentious and courageous David Morris Senior Editor Guideposts Books Miller tells a remarkable story one that is in a sense an American Angela's Ashes but with the added element of faith as a factor in surviving an incredibly rough childhood Michael Wilt Editor Nimble Spirit      Research Methods and Statistics Bernard C. Beins, Maureen A. McCarthy, 2017-11-02 This seamless introduction to statistics and research methods identifies various research areas and analyzes how one approaches them statistically      Ancient Greek Ideas on Speech, Language, and Civilization Deborah Levine Gera, 2003 The source and nature of earliest speech and civilization are puzzles that have intrigued people for many centuries This book explores Greek ideas on the beginnings of language and the links between speech and civilization It is a study of ancient Greek views on the nature of the world's first society and first language the source of language the development of civilization and speech and the relation between people's level of civilization and the kind of language they use Discussions of later Western reflections on the origin and development of language and society particularly during the Enlightenment feature in the book along with brief surveys of recent research on glottogenesis the acquisition of language and the beginnings of civilization BOOK JACKET

Self-Projection Linda Haverty Rugg, 2014-03-01 In 1957 a decade before Roland Barthes announced the death of the author François Truffaut called for a new era in which films would resemble the person who made them and be even more personal than an autobiographical novel More than five decades on it seems that Barthes has won the argument when it comes to most film critics The cinematic author we are told has been dead for a long time Yet Linda Haverty Rugg contends not only that the art cinema auteur never died but that the films of some of the most important auteurs are intensely if complexly related to the lives and self images of their directors Self Projection explores how nondocumentary narrative art films create alternative forms of collaborative self representation and selfhood The book examines the work of celebrated directors who plant autobiographical traces in their films including Truffaut Bergman Fellini Tarkovsky Herzog Allen Almodóvar and von Trier It is not simply that these directors and many others like them make autobiographical references or occasionally appear in their films but that they tie their films to their life stories and communicate that link to their audiences Projecting a new kind of selfhood these directors encourage identifications between themselves and their work even as they disavow such connections And because of the collaborative and technological nature of filmmaking the director's self projection involves actors audience and the machines and institution of the cinema as well Lively and accessible Self Projection sheds new light on the films of these iconic directors and on art cinema in general ultimately showing how film can transform not only the autobiographical act but what it means to have a self The Publishers Weekly, 1999
