Bordering Fires Cristina Garcia,2009-01-21 As the descendants of Mexican immigrants have settled throughout the United States a great literature has emerged but its correspondances with the literature of Mexico have gone largely unobserved In Bordering Fires the first anthology to combine writing from both sides of the Mexican U S border Cristina Garc a presents a richly diverse cross cultural conversation Beginning with Mexican masters such as Alfonso Reyes and Juan Rulfo Garc a highlights historic voices such as the godfather of Chicano literature Rudolfo Anaya and Gloria Anzald a who made a powerful case for language that reflects bicultural experience From the fierce evocations of Chicano reality in Jimmy Santiago Baca s Poem IX to the breathtaking images of identity in Coral Bracho s poem Fish of Fleeting Skin from the work of Carlos Fuentes to Sandra Cisneros Ana Castillo to Octavio Paz this landmark collection of fiction essays and poetry offers an exhilarating new vantage point on our continent and on the best of contemporary literature From the Trade Paperback edition Contemporary Finnish Poetry Herbert Lomas,1990-12-31 Finnish poetry is a popular poetry It does not solve problems or try to but people turn to it for solace inspiration stimulation to think about themselves extensions of experience and the shaping spirit This poetry has fed a clearly felt hunger the need for companionable reports on what it is like to be a Finn in this phase of the muddle for survival But like all authentic local reports its appeal is universal It is very spare Our own poetry can look baroque to the Finns not leaving enough silence between the words The younger poets are already moving in new directions Inheriting a flexible common idiom forged by the previous generation they have been liberated Herbert Lomas Herbert Lomas s anthology traces the history of post war Finnish poetry showing the rise and repercussions of Finland s own revolution in poetry In a wide ranging introduction he describes the poetry of all 21 writers featured in the book and presents a detailed analysis of the two major poets with international reputations Paavo Haavikko and Pentti Saarikoski the most famous of the brilliant generation of 21 year olds who led the rejuvenation of Finnish poetry in the 1950s The selections from the towering and controversial figures of Haavikko and Saarikoski cover their whole careers But the other poets too ranging from Eeva Liisa Manner born 1921 to Satu Salminiitty born 1959 are comprehensively presented Among the book s surprises are the animal parables of Kirsi Kunnas Finland s Stevie Smith and the satires of Jarkko Laine whose work is fuelled by a hatred of conventional poetry and religion Modern European Borders in Fiction Andrew
