Critical Issues In Tourism A Geographical Perspective:

Critical Issues in Tourism Gareth Shaw, Allan M. Williams, 2002 The first edition of this text provided a geographic perspective on how the production and consumption of tourism are reshaping human and physical environments This edition builds on this updating the material to reflect changes that have taken place Critical issues in tourism : a geographical perspective Gareth Shaw (Allan M. Williams), 1997 Critical Issues in Tourism Gareth Shaw, 1994-01-14 Few industries have expanded faster over the last fifty years than tourism Tourism has brought employment to millions frequently in the poor and more remote parts of the world and given pleasure variety rest and recreation to countless numbers of travelers and holiday makers It has at the same time destroyed and polluted pristine environments threatened local cultures and in doing so frequently devalued just those characteristics of a place that had made it a desirable tourist objective The issues that tourism raises are of critical and vital importance throughout the world this book provides a much needed geographical perspective upon them The authors focus on both the production and consumption of tourism and show that it is this interrelationship which holds the key to understanding the ways in which tourism shapes and reshapes human and physical environments They analyze the key features of the tourism and leisure industries and place them in the context of changing social political and economic structures and behavior The argument is accompanied throughout by illustrative case studies drawn from a wide range of countries including both the developed and developing economies Tourism: The Key Concepts Peter Robinson, 2012-10-12 Tourism The Key Concepts offers a comprehensive collection of the most frequently used and studied concepts in the subject of tourism Within the text key terms concepts typologies and frameworks are examined in the context of the broader social sciences blending together theory and practice to explore the scope of the subject Terms covered include Ethical Tourism LGBT Tourism Hospitality Mobility Authenticity Quality Management Destination Management Geographies of Tourism Planning Sociology in Tourism Society and Culture Tourism Strategy Each entry contextualises defines and debates the concept discussed providing an excellent starting point for those studying tourism for the first time and a quick reference for those who are more experienced With case studies examples and further reading throughout this text will be invaluable for all undergraduate and postgraduate tourism students Investigating the challenges of promoting dark tourism in Rwanda Joachim Ntunda, 2014-07-18 This study tries to assess the challenges of promoting dark tourism in Rwanda The study was guided by three objectives To find dark tourism products in Rwanda to investigate the challenges of promoting dark tourism in Rwanda and to establish measures that could be adopted to promote it To achieve the set objectives the study used a sample of 43 respondents randomly selected from staff of Rwanda Development Board RDB museum memorial site managers and tour operators Data was collected by use of questionnaire instrument and summarized in tables and graphs following the objectives of the study Furthermore frequencies and percentages were calculated based on the data available The findings indicates that there are various dark tourism products in Rwanda which included Kigali memorial center Bisesero Gatwaro Stadium and Gitesi memorial site Less effective information dissemination High cost charged to tourists and Lack of skilled staff are the challenges affecting the promotion of dark tourism Measures that could be adopted to promote dark tourism in Rwanda are Improving marketing strategies training of staff and service providers and improving the variety and accessibility of dark tourism attractions The study concludes by noting that identifying the successful practices in management branding marketing and pricing strategies of dark tourism attractions around the world can aid in applying these ideas towards improving the dark tourism industry in Rwanda The study recommends that since we are living in a global world using the mass media advertisements specifically TV Newspapers or other tourism information brochures is significantly important in attracting more dark tourists

Perspectives on Rural Tourism Geographies Rhonda L. Koster, Doris A. Carson, 2019-03-14 This book examines rural tourism across three different contexts acknowledging the complexity of rural places It applies a systematic comparative framework across nine case studies from Australia Canada and Sweden The case studies address the uniqueness of different rural spaces while the framework incorporates many theoretical aspects from human geography including spatial historic institutional demographic socio economic and network perspectives In the course of applying this comparative case study framework the book identifies numerous implications for planning and policy in rural settings These contributions from international expert authors help to identify the opportunities and challenges that affect rural regions from places at the urban fringe to exotic remote spaces and taking in the boring bits in between Both the analysis and the framework used will be of value to scholars and students of rurality tourism regional development rural policy geography and destination management Readers will gain a deeper understanding of the rural context in developed countries and a robust conceptualization of rural tourism geographies
