Embracing Disruptive Coherence Kathleen T. Talvacchia, 2019-04-18 Does anyone need to come out anymore Queer theory has challenged the idea of coming out as problematic for its false binary and essentialized version of identity If gender is a socially constructed performativity then what does coming out mean At the same time we live in a society that still struggles with structures of power that define what is considered normal and sanctions those who transgress The intersectionality of gender with race class ethnicity nationality abilities religion age and other positional markers challenge a simplified belief that coming out is not necessary Therefore in the lived experience of many persons coming out still matters This book initiates a different theological conversation about coming out It argues that rather than the declaration of an identity category coming out can be understood as the erotic ethical practice of truth telling The formation of conscience and moral integrity embody the two pillars of this erotic practice Coming out understood as disruptive coherence is the erotic ethical practice of truth telling grounded in our deepest desires to be known authentically in community

Educating for Civic Dialogue in an Age of Uncivil Discourse Dennis Gunn, 2020-03-23 Educating for Civic Dialogue in an Age of Uncivil Discourse addresses an urgent challenge to help students learn the skills of civic engagement by offering a framework for authentic cosmopolitan education As an invitation to ongoing civil dialogue with diverse voices in the classroom the book aims to foster the skills of democratic and global citizenship that allow students to find their voice as local national and global citizens outside of the classroom It suggests practical ways that teachers can promote the skills of attentive listening intelligent questioning reasonable positioning and responsible dialogue in order to encourage authentic civic discourse It also outlines specific pedagogical strategies designed to foster students cosmopolitan competencies as democratic and global citizens

Minjung and Process Hiheon Kim, 2009 This book reconstructs the legacy of Korean minjung theology by reformulating its essential ideas in a dialogue with process thought In a minimal sense this study is a theological reinterpretation of the doctrine of the minjung messiah an idea which historically suffered from a misunderstanding that minjung theology created a messianic confusion while replacing christology and soteriology by a radical anthropology This erroneous conception occurred when the idea was placed within the philosophically dualistic framework of traditional doctrines in which the work of minjung is totally separated from the work of Christ In order to avoid such a dualistic understanding the author critically adopts process panentheism and makes minjung ideas more communicable and more comprehensive in current theological religious and philosophical debates Beyond defending the idea of the minjung messiah he also argues for an inclusive minjung hermeneutics that promotes the fundamental insight of minjung theology in philosophical clarity Through minjung hermeneutics minjung theology expands its practical concern and overcomes the theoretical nihilism in postmodern studies
