Cruel Attachments The Ritual Rehab Of Child Molesters In Germany:

Cruel Attachments John Borneman, 2015-03-10 Child molesters are widely regarded as the most incorrigible of criminal types as recidivists who deserve harsh punishment In Germany today however attention has shifted from punishment to court mandated rehabilitation through therapy Therapists guide the offender through a process normally assigned to a religious authority the transformation of the criminal into a person capable of reintegration into society Cruel Attachments is anthropologist John Borneman's account of the attempt to rehabilitate child sex offenders through therapy Using select case studies Borneman follows the experience of offenders from accusation to admission of culpability through arrest trial imprisonment treatment release from prison and either social reincorporation or indefinite surveillance The book opens with an absorbing and disturbing ethnography of a particularly important and sensational case of the rehabilitation of the infamous Berlin sex offender Alexander Marquardt Marquardt was a child abuser and brutal pimp who underwent rehabilitation therapy during his long imprisonment During his therapy it was discovered that he had been sexually abused by his mother over several years starting when he was pre pubescent After his lengthy and ultimately successful rehabilitation Marquardt was released and is now a successful owner and manager of a fitness center Borneman's vivid account of Marquardt addresses the controversial question of whether such therapy really works in the sense of changing a person's deepest desires The subsequent case histories and theory chapters range from general reflections on the historical evolution of cultural handling of child sexual abuse to cases of incest pedophilia inappropriate sex play between parents and children among others This is the first book ever on the topic of the intensely ambiguous and fraught project of attempted rehabilitation of perpetrators and what that project tells us about ourselves and our culture's contradictions No other book has combined that focus with a larger meditation on the state of anthropology as Cruel Attachments so beautifully does

Cruel Attachments Mark Mitchell, 2016-09-20 This book offers critical reflections on the intersections between criminology and queer scholarship and charts future directions for this field Since their development over twenty five years ago queer scholarship and politics have been hotly contested fields equally embraced and dismissed Amid calls for criminology and criminal justice institutions to respond more effectively to the injustices faced by LGBTIQ people criminologists have recently developed a Queer Criminology and turned to queer scholarship in the process

Cruel Attachments John Borneman, 2015-03-09 There is no more seemingly incorrigible criminal type than the child sex offender Said to suffer from a deeply rooted paraphilia he is often considered as outside the moral limits of the human profoundly resistant to change Despite these assessments in much of the West an increasing focus on rehabilitation through therapy provides hope that psychological transformation is possible Examining the experiences of child sex offenders undergoing therapy in Germany where such treatments are both a legal right and duty John Borneman in Cruel Attachments offers a fine grained account of rehabilitation for this reviled criminal type Carefully exploring different cases of the attempt to rehabilitate child sex offenders Borneman details a secular ritual process aimed not only at preventing future acts of molestation but also at fundamentally transforming the offender who is ultimately charged with creating an almost entirely new self Acknowledging the powerful repulsion felt by a public that is often extremely skeptical about the success of rehabilitation he challenges readers to confront the contemporary contexts and conundrums that lie at the heart of regulating intimacy between children and adults

Captivating Technology Ruha Benjamin, 2019-06-07 The contributors to Captivating Technology examine how carceral technologies such as electronic ankle monitors and predictive policing algorithms are being deployed to classify and coerce specific populations and whether these innovations can be appropriated and reimagined for more liberatory ends

The Seduction of Youth Javier Samper Vendrell, 2020-04-02 A simple man from the provinces Friedrich Radszuweit merged popular culture consumerism and politics as the leader of the League for Human Rights Germany's first mass homosexual organization The Seduction of Youth is the first study to focus on the League and its leader using his position at the centre of the Weimar era gay rights movement to tease out the diverging political strategies and contradictory tactics that distinguished the movement By examining news articles and opinion pieces as well as literary texts and photographs in the League's numerous pulp magazines for homosexuals Javier Samper Vendrell reconstructs forgotten aspects of the history of same sex desire and subjectivity While recognizing the possibilities of liberal rights for sexual freedom during the Weimar Republic the League's respectability politics failed in part because Radszuweit's own publications contributed to the idea that homosexual men were considered a threat to youth doing little to change the views of the many people who believed in homosexual seduction a homophobic trope that endured well into the twentieth century

Sex Richard Joseph Martin, Dieter Haller, 2020-05-27 Focusing on the unacknowledged personal and often unconscious dimension Sex explores the intersection between sex and ethnography Anthropological writing tends to focus on the influence of status markers such as position gender ethnicity and age on fieldwork By contrast far less attention has been paid to how sex sexuality eroticism desire attraction and rejection affect ethnographic research In the book anthropologists reflect on their own encounters with sex during fieldwork revealing how attraction and desire influence the choice of fieldwork subjects field sites and friendships They also examine the resulting impact on fieldwork findings and the generation of knowledge Based on fieldwork in Germany Denmark Greece the USA Brazil South Africa Singapore Turkey Israel Morocco and India the contributors go beyond the common heterosexuality homosexuality divide to address topics which include celibacy polyamory and sadomasochism This long overdue text provides perspectives from a new generation of anthropologists and brings the debate into the 21st century Examining challenging and controversial issues in contemporary fieldwork this is essential reading for students in anthropology gender and sexuality studies sociology research methods and ethics courses

Regimes of Ignorance Roy Dilley, Thomas G. Kirsch, 2015-10-01 Non knowledge should not be simply regarded as the opposite of knowledge but as complementary to it each derives its character and meaning from the other and from their interaction Knowledge does not colonize the space of ignorance in the progressive march of science rather knowledge and ignorance are mutually shaped in social and political domains of partial shifting and temporal relationships This volume s ethnographic analyses provide a theoretical frame through which to consider the production and reproduction of ignorance non knowledge and secrecy as well as the wider implications these ideas have for anthropology and related disciplines in the social sciences and humanities

Your Computer Is on Fire Thomas S. Mullaney, Benjamin Peters, Mar Hicks, Kavita Philip, 2021-03-09 Techno utopianism is dead Now is the time to pay attention to the inequality marginalization and biases woven into our technological systems This book sounds an alarm after decades of being lulled into complacency by narratives of technological utopianism and neutrality people are waking up to the large scale consequences of Silicon Valley led technophilia This book trains a spotlight on the inequality marginalization and biases in our technological systems showing how they are not just minor bugs to be patched but part and parcel of ideas that assume technology can fix and control society Contributors Janet Abbate Ben Allen Paul N Edwards Nathan Ensmenger Mar Hicks Halcyon M Lawrence Thomas S Mullaney Safiya Umoja Noble Benjamin Peters Kavita Philip Sarah T Roberts Sreela Sarkar Corinna Schlombs Andrea Stanton Mitali Thakor Noah Wardrip Fruin

Crowds Megan Steffen, 2020-05-26 What exactly is a crowd How do crowds differ from other large gatherings of people And how do they transform emotions politics or faith In Crowds contributors draw on their experiences and expertise to reflect on their encounters with crowds Each chapter examines a particular crowd or conception of crowdedness to provide an analysis of how when where and with whom crowds form in different contexts as well as their purpose and the practical effect the experience has on both the participants and their environment The wide selection of case studies ranges from the crowds that form every year during the Hajj to New Year celebrations in China commuters on the Delhi metro public prayer in Nigeria online mobs in Bangladesh and the crowds that have emerged during protest movements in Thailand and Syria Crowds makes a key contribution to establishing an anthropological theory of crowds and will be an essential read for both students and researchers

Guilt, 2021-12-08 Since the end of the 20th century social movements around the world have called for accountability and reparation for past harms particularly harms committed by states against various minority groups This volume argues that guilt is a productive force that helps to balance unequal power dynamics between individuals and groups With chapters bridging the social sciences law and humanities chapter authors examine the role and function of guilt in society and present case studies from seven national contexts
