

Arguably the most distinguished work of fiction ever written about immigrant life. —Liz Harris, The New Yorker

A photograph of a tenement building with laundry hanging on a line in the foreground. The scene is set in a tenement building with a balcony and a fire escape. A line of laundry, including various shirts and towels, is strung across the foreground. The building is made of brick and has a fire escape on the right side. The sky is a hazy, warm orange color, suggesting a sunset or sunrise. The overall mood is gritty and evocative of early 20th-century urban life.
