New Transnationalisms in Contemporary Latin American Cinemas Dolores Tierney, 2018-01-23 In the late 1990s and early 2000s Latin American films like Amores perros Y tu mamá también and Cidade de Deus enjoyed an unprecedented level of critical and commercial success in the world market Benefitting from external financial and or creative input these films were considered examples of transnational cinema Through a textual analysis of six filmmakers Alejandro González Iñárritu Alfonso Cuarón Guillermo del Toro Fernando Meirelles Walter Salles and Juan José Campanella this book examines these transnational films and the subsequent wave of commercially successful deterritorialised films by the same directors It argues that although films produced within the structures of the United States film industry may have been commercially successful they are not necessarily apolitical or totally divorced from key notions of national or continental identity Bringing a new perspective to the films of Latin America s transnational auteurs this is a major contribution towards understanding how different genres function across different cultures

Spanish Film Cultures Núria Triana-Toribio, 2016-06-03 The past four decades have seen the Spanish film industry rise from isolation in the 1970s to international recognition within European and World Cinema today Exploring the cultural and political imperatives that governed this success this book shows how Spanish film culture was deliberately and strategically shaped into its current form
