Reflection Milt Lemke Jr., 2005-05-27 Through the years Ive learned much from my Poetry Mentors who are many and a few Ive mentioned in this book They taught me by example that yes I too can be a Poet I too can be a member of this extraordinary extended family A good dose of courage and risk taking is whats needed to achieve some sort of compromising end Frankly Ive learned little of this art from text books and class rooms Its The Masters the elder Poets who are my text book and class room teaching me the refinement process of honing and polishing What ever course my poetry and prose might take My Tutors assure me its a well worth the journey down every path and side path Visiting every side show I visit and eventually discovering my style I consider my poems and prose as my children Like their parent I want them to do their best Ive nurtured them loved them and cared for them Ive held on to them long enough Its time they go out on their own You may be disappointed if you fail but you are doomed if you dont try Beverly Sills Milt Lemke Jr

Gunplays William Electric Black, 2023-08-01 Gunplays is a series of five plays by William Electric Black addressing inner city violence and guns The idea of these plays is to generate understanding of the social inequities and disparities behind this plague that our society has so far been helpless to resolve The debut productions of all five plays in the series were presented by Crystal Field executive director at Theater for the New City in New York City Black launched the Gunplays series in 2013 with Welcome Home Sonny T a drama that spotlighted two significant forces driving the 21st century epidemic of American gun violence the social impact of alienation and unemployment on young black males and the declining influence of black ministers as a force of stability in affected neighborhoods The second play in the series When Black Boys Die 2015 is a family drama in which a teenage girl tries to understand the madness of gun violence that has killed her brother and consumed her mother The third presented by Theater for the New City for 2016 Gun Awareness Month is Death of a Black Man A Walk By a play with hip hop verse chanting songs and poetry in which the audience moves through a neighborhood that experienced gun violence The fourth The Faculty Room 2017 is a drama that swallows its audience into a schoolhouse in a mandatory lock down because of an imminent gunfight between two students The final play Subway Story A Shooting 2018 combines music poetry dialogue movement and immersive theater in a way that makes it the most unique staging in the series as a teenage girl rides the subway looking to buy a gun as a means to deal with her abusive mother I Will Survive A Divorcee,2019-10-24 This move back home represented for me another punch and I was reeling with it to the other side of the ring and the other side of the world It felt like I kept bouncing off the boxing ring ropes Boing Boing I was amazed that I could still feel something after all the punches I was the recipient of I wished I were numb but I wasn't You feel each blow and that is what divorce is Blow after blow and you being bounced off the sides of the ring in the craziest scheme of things Total loss of control as your body is flung to all sides like a rag doll They packed We smoked I cried A Divorcee Divorce is real self discovery Isn't it funny that all the letters of the word Divorce can be found in the word Discovery Divorce is the catalyst for self discovery if life were logical it would start with a divorce Divorce is about Separation and Life is a series of successive separations that make up this story as all of our stories In my story the accent may be on divorce but we can also realize that in life we all lead divorces Divorce from a country of origin a job living with parents and then with children our culture our language our youth
