Die Boek Van Toeval En Toeverlaat:

Present Imperfect Andrew van der Vlies, 2017-05-19 Present Imperfect asks how South African writers have responded to the end of apartheid to the hopes that attended the birth of the new nation in 1994 and to the inevitable disappointments that have followed. The first full length study of affect in South Africa's literature it understands disappointment both as a description of bad feeling and as naming a missed appointment with all that was promised by the anti colonial and anti apartheid Struggle a disappointment. Attending to contemporary writers treatment of temporality genre and form it considers a range of negative feelings that are also experiences of temporal disjuncture including stasis impasse boredom disaffection and nostalgia. Present Imperfect offers close readings of work by a range of writers some known to international Anglophone readers including J M Coetzee Nadine Gordimer Ivan Vladislavic and Zo Wicomb some slightly less well known including Afrikaans language novelists Marlene van Niekerk and Ingrid Winterbach and others from a new generation including Songeziwe Mahlangu and Masande Ntshanga. It addresses key questions in South African studies about the evolving character of the historical period in which the country now finds itself. It is also alert to wider critical and theoretical conversations looking outward to make a case for the place of South African writing in global conversations and mobilizing readings of writing marked in various ways as South African in order to complicate the contours of World Literature as category discipline and pedagogy. It is thus also a book about the discontents of neoliberalism the political energies of reading and the fates of literature in our troubled present. Die tand van die tyd Marn, Pienaar, Willie Burger, 2009-11-01

Jac Conradie se intreerede as professor aan die Universiteit van Johannesburg het as titel Die tand van die tyd gehad. Die bydraes in hierdie bundel weerspieël iets van Jac se veelsydigheid en van sy impak op die akademie. Bydraes uit Europa Noord Amerika en Afrika deur taalkundiges letterkundiges en historici getuig van die respek wat Jac oor n wye akademiese front afdwing. As die huldiging van n loopbaan van n wetenskaplike maar ook van n wellewende mens kan hierdie bundel nie genoegsaam wees nie maar dit is n aanduiding van die waardering en ho agting wat akademiëci die w reld oor vir Jac het.

Semblance and Signification Pascal Michelucci, Olga Fischer, Christina Ljungberg, 2011-11-23 The articles assembled in Semblance and Signification explore linguistic and literary structures from a range of theoretical perspectives with a view to understanding the extent prevalence productivity and limitations of iconically grounded forms of semiosis. With the complementary examination of large theoretical issues extensive corpus analysis in several modern languages such as Italian Japanese Sign Language and English and applied close studies across a range of artistic media this volume brings a fresh understanding of the cognitive underpinnings of iconicity. If primary and secondary modelling systems are rarely studied in tandem it is clear from this volume that their fruitful juxtaposition yields striking insight into the cognitive concerns that pervade current semiotic research. African Perspectives on Literary Translation Judith Inggs, Ella

Wehrmeyer, 2021-03-02 This collection serves as a showcase for literary translation research with a focus on African perspectives highlighting theoretical and methodological developments in the discipline while shedding further light on the literary landscape in Africa The book offers a framework for understanding key approaches and topics in literary translation situated in the African context covering foundational concepts as well as new directions within the field The first half of the volume focuses on the translation product exploring such topics as translation strategies literary genres and self translation while the second half examines process and reception allowing for an in depth look at agency habitus and ethics Each chapter is structured to allow for the introduction of a given theoretical aspect of literary translation followed by a summary of a completed research project with an African focus showing theory in practice offering a model for readers to build their own literary translation research projects while also underscoring the range of perspectives and unique challenges to literary translation work in Africa This unique volume is a key resource for students and scholars in translation studies giving visibility to African perspectives on literary translation while pointing the way forward for future research directions

Singularity and Transnational Poetics Birgit Mara Kaiser, 2014-12-05 Over the past decade singularity has been a prominent term in a broad range of fields ranging from philosophy to literary and cultural studies to science and technology studies This volume intervenes in this broad discussion of singularity and its various implications proposing to explore the term for its specific potential in the study of literature Singularity and Transnational Poetics brings together scholars working in the fields of literary and cultural studies translation studies and transnational literatures The volume's central concern is to explore singularity as a conceptual tool for the comparative study of contemporary literatures beyond national frameworks and by implication as a tool to analyze human existence Contributors explore how singularity might move our conceptions of cultural identity from prevailing frameworks of self other toward the premises of being as singular plural Through a close reading of transnational literatures from Ireland Germany the Netherlands France and South Africa this collection offers a new approach to reading literature that will challenge a reader's established notions of identity individuality communicability and social cohesion

Like Family Ena Jansen, 2019-04-01 An analytic and historical perspective of literary texts to understand the position of domestic workers in South Africa More than a million black South African women are domestic workers Precariously situated between urban and rural areas rich and poor white and black these women are at once intimately connected and at a distant remove from the families they serve Ena Jansen shows that domestic worker relations in South Africa were shaped by the institution of slavery establishing social hierarchies and patterns of behavior that persist today To support her argument Jansen examines the representation of domestic workers in a diverse range of texts in English and Afrikaans Authors include Andr Brink JM Coetzee Imraan Coovadia Nadine Gordimer Elsa Joubert Antjie Krog Sindiwe Magona Kopano Matlwa Es kia Mphahlele Sisonke Msimang Zukiswa Wanner and Zo Wicomb Like Family is an updated version of the award winning Soos familie 2015 and the highly acclaimed 2016 Dutch translation Bijna familie

Crossing Borders, Dissolving Boundaries Hein

Viljoen, 2013 Borders separate but also connect self and other and literary texts not only enact these bordering processes but form part of such processes This book gestures towards a borderless world stepping as it were with thousand mile boots from south to north even across the Atlantic from South Africa to Scandinavia It also shows how literary texts model and remodel borders and bordering processes in rich and meaningful local contexts The essays assembled here analyse the crossing and negotiation of borders and boundaries in works by Nadine Gordimer Ingrid Winterbach Deneys Reitz Janet Suzman Marlene van Niekerk A S Byatt Thomas Harris Frank A Jenssen Eben Venter Antjie Krog and others under different signs or conceptual points of attraction These signs include a spiritual turn eventfulness self understanding ethnic and linguistic mobilization performative chronotopes the grotesque the carceral the rhetorical and the interstitial Contributors Ileana Dimitriu Heilna du Plooy John Gouws Anne Heith Lida Kr ger Susan Meyer Ad le Nel Ellen Rees Johan Schimanski Tony Ulyatt Phil van Schalkwyk Hein Viljoen Kaapse bibliotekaris , 2019 Issues for Nov 1957 include section Accessions Aanwinste Sept 1957 Genres of Critique Karin van Marle, Stewart Motha, 2013-12-01 The book seeks to open and explore the liminal space of critique at the intersection of law aesthetics and politics The essays in this volume elaborate and expand the meaning and significance of critique through an engagement with aesthetic forms Although this endeavour has wider significance the focus is primarily on South Africa The various contributions arose out of a process of reading writing and discussion among visiting scholars at the Stellenbosch Institute for Advanced Study STIAS Stellenbosch University South Africa in 2010 The project responds to the limits of the transplantation of critical legal studies into different jurisdictions especially South Africa The essays develop an approach to critical legal thinking that is conscious of critique as a problem of genre and seek to open up this problem of genre in the context of critical legal studies
