Catena Aurea Golden Chain II:

John Wyclif's Discourse on Dominion in Community Elemér Boreczky, 2008 This book reconstructs John Wyclif's whole discourse on dominion in community by rereading his notorious works and restores his fame and integrity as a serious and original thinker Christ's lawyer and the law giver of the English nation at the dawn of Reformation The Comedy of Errors William Shakespeare, 2004-02-26 The New Cambridge Shakespeare appeals to students worldwide for its up to date scholarship and emphasis on performance The series features line by line commentaries and textual notes on the plays and poems Introductions are regularly refreshed with accounts of new critical stage and screen interpretations For this second edition of The Comedy of Errors Ros King has revised T S Dorsch's renowned text and commentary and written a completely new introduction to the work She argues that the play cannot be regarded merely as a farcical romp based on a classical model but that it belongs to the critically misunderstood genre of tragic comedy Emphasising the seriousness that underlies the text she pays special attention to the play's religious imagery and at the same time engages fully with its lightness of touch and its continuing popularity in the theatre The volume also features accounts of recent and historical performances and an updated reading list Thomas Vaughan and the Rosicrucian Revival in Britain Thomas Willard, 2022-09-19 The first scholarly book on Thomas Vaughan 1621-1666 draws from recent studies in Western esotericism to place his famously difficult writings in their proper context It shows that they develop themes from a distinctively Rosicrucian synthesis of alchemy magic and Christian cabala Vaughan introduced Rosicrucian documents to English readers and placed them in older philosophical contexts during the breakdown of censorship that followed the English Revolution against the old order in politics and religion Willard's book will appeal to students of early modern ideas about religion science and society as they were seen by an intelligent and eloquent outsider An Introduction to Medieval Theology Rik van Nieuwenhove, 2012-04-19 Medieval theology in all its diversity was radically theocentric Trinitarian Scriptural and sacramental It also operated with a profound view of human understanding in terms of intellectus rather than mere ratio In a post modern climate in which the modern views on autonomous reason are increasingly being questioned it may prove fruitful to re-engage with pre modern thinkers who obviously did not share our modern and post modern presuppositions Their different perspective does not antiquate their thought as some of the cultured despisers of medieval thought might imagine On the contrary rather than rendering their views obsolete it makes them profoundly challenging and enriching for theology today This book is more than a survey of key medieval thinkers from Augustine to the late medieval period it is an invitation to think along with major theologians and explore how their thought can deeply challenge some of today's modern and post modern key assumptions The Power of Patristic Preaching Andrew Hofer, Andrew Hofer, OP, 2023-04-28 The Word made flesh is manifested in the lives of those dedicated to his proclamation The Power of Patristic Preaching The Word in Our Flesh presents seven early preachers who show by life and speech the divine Word's power at work in weak human life The book is inspired by this question preached by Origen For what does it profit if I should say that Jesus has come in that flesh alone which he received from Mary and I should not show also that he has come in this flesh of mine In seven chapters The Power of Patristic Preaching studies the exemplars of Origen for holiness Ephrem for the humility of repentance Gregory of Nazianzus for purification and faith John Chrysostom for the hope of salvation Augustine for love Leo the Great for love of the poor and the weak and Gregory the Great for accepting our own weakness With an emphasis on the incarnation deification through the virtues and proclamation The Power of Patristic Preaching serves as a resource for those dedicated to the ministry of the Word clerical religious and lay and as a text for students of early Christian theology and practices A Catholic work for a broad ecumenical audience the book gives a cry from the heart in a suffering Church traveling through a world that is passing away

Erasmus on the New Testament Robert D. Sider, 2020-04-02 When Erasmus at Cambridge in 1512 began to mark up his copy of the Vulgate Bible with a few alternative Latin translations and a biting comment here and there in Latin he could not have guessed that his work would grow over the next twenty three years into the twenty volumes currently being produced as annotated translations in The Collected Works of Erasmus His Paraphrases vastly expanded the text of the New Testament books and brought dynamic and controversial interpretations to the traditional reading of the Latin texts A new translation based on the Greek text the first ever to be published by a printing firm became the basis for ever expanding notes that explained the Greek measured the contemporary church against the truth revealed by the Greek taunted critics and opponents and revealed the mind of a humanist at work on the Scriptures The sheer vastness of the work that finally accumulated is almost beyond the reach of a single individual Through excerpts chosen over the entire extent of Erasmus New Testament work this book hopes to reduce that immensity to manageable size and bring the rich virtually unlimited treasure of the Erasmian mind on the Scriptures within the comfortable reach of every interested individual Christian Mysticism and Incarnational Theology Louise Nelstrop, Simon D.

Podmore, 2016-05-23 This book examines the relationship between transcendence and immanence within Christian mystical and apophatic writings Original essays from a range of leading established and emerging scholars in the field focus on the roles of language signs and images and consider how mystical theology might contribute to contemporary reflection on the Word incarnate This collection of essays re examines works from such canonical figures as Eckhart Augustine Plotinus Pseudo Dionysius Nicolas of Cusa Teresa of Avila John of the Cross Julian of Norwich along with the philosophical thought of Iris Murdoch Jacques Lacan and Martin Heidegger and the contemporary phenomena of the Emerging Church Presenting new readings of key ideas in mystical theology and renewed engagement with the visionary and the everyday the therapeutic and the transformative these essays question how we might think about what may lie between transcendence and immanence
