Democracy and Dictatorship Zevedei Barbu,2015-07-09 Excerpt from Democracy and Dictatorship Their Psychology and Patterns of Life One of my first concerns in the present study was to find or to build up a common ground between sociology and psychology and thus to look at the problem of democracy and totalitarianism from two points of view at once From the very outset I felt the need to escape a purely political approach and to speak about democracy and totalitarianism as ways of life Needless to say I have been aware of the difficulty anyone has to face when working with such a general and vague concept as that of a way of life But on the other hand it was obvious to me that a common ground between two disciplines so different and opposed in their approach could not be found without resorting to a less specialized and less precise vocabulary The concept of way of life included both a specific social and political structure and a specific type of behaviour and personality It seems to me that many difficulties involved in the study of the democratic and totalitarian ways of life can be considerably diminished by acquiring the technique of thinking on two planes sociological and psychological Consequently my next concern was to establish a series of correspondences between the sociological and psychological aspects of the democratic and totalitarian ways of life Thus starting with the analysis of a series of phenomena characteristic of various periods of democratization both in the ancient and modern worlds I was led to the idea that democratization is closely associated with a series of processes by which the common pattern of life of a group of individuals becomes flexible The transitions from the medieval to the modern economic system from the rigidly organized medieval community to the dynamic society gradually created in the Western world since the Renaissance from a stable spiritual world dominated by religion to a world permanently open to changes and revisions as science progresses are in fact aspects in the process towards flexibility of the culture patterns of Western societies About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

Alienation and the Carnivalization of Society Jerome Braun,Lauren Langman,2012-04-23 This book examines alienation from both a sociological and psychoanalytic perspective revisiting classic treatments of the topic Marx Simmel Weber and exploring its relevance to understanding post modern consumer society It examines the escapist potentials for good and for ill in modern society those fostered by commercial interests and those maintained by individuals and groups as their form of resisting alienation The Political Economy of Banking Governance in China Xuming Yang, 2017-04-21 Chinese state banks which were considered technically insolvent in the 1990s are at present among the largest and most important banks in the world This book based on the author s research and also on his extensive experience of working in Chinese banks explores how Chinese banks technical efficiency and organisational flexibility have been achieved whilst ownership and control by the Chinese Communist Party have continued The author reveals a distinctly non Western approach to corporate governance but one that has nevertheless worked very well

Political and Legal Obligation J. Roland Pennock, 2017-07-12 At a point in history marked by dramatic challenges to the existing political and social order the question of legal and political obligation emerges as a focal point of international concern Amid the clamor for radical change in the established order theories of political obligation demand renewed examination In this volume eighteen leading specialists in the legal philosophical and political science aspects of the question offer their views on this timely topic Part I examines the nature of moral legal and political obligation The first essay presents a set of definitions that denies the very existence of obligation While the second essay disagreeing particularly with respect to the relationship of political to moral tenets and the third discussing the highly complex interplay between law and morality The following essay approaches obligation as existing in the context of an established political and legal system and stresses the importance of evaluating the negative consequences of challenges to the law as well as those arising from the absence of challenges The next paper maintains that political obligation is so complex that its very existence depends upon rational deliberation in particular contexts The fifth explores four significant theories but accepts only the one based on the broadest definition of obligation While the final essay in this part considers political obligation a unique and generalized moral obligation Part II takes up the conditions of obligation and of obedience The first essay in this part discusses the conditions necessary to generate a felt obligation The second paper concentrates on exposing key obstacles to empirical proof that behavior is or is not motivated by felt obligation While the third draws upon a large body of literature and court decisions dealing with compliance to the law The forth essay is a case study of Rome probes the role of obligation during that city s seven cent

Trump on the Couch Justin A. Frank, MD, 2018-09-25 A great public service critical for our time Bandy X Lee M D M Div Yale psychiatrist expert on violence and editor of The Dangerous Case of Donald Trump The New York Times bestselling author of Bush on the Couch shows that Donald Trump is mentally and emotionally unfit to execute the duties of President No president in the history of the United States has inspired more alarm and confusion than Donald Trump As questions and concerns about his decisions behavior and qualifications for office have multiplied they point to one primary question Does he pose a genuine threat to our country The American Psychiatric Association s Goldwater Rule constrains psychiatrists from offering diagnoses on public figures who are not patients and who have not endorsed such statements But in Trump on the Couch Clinical Professor of Psychiatry Justin A Frank invokes the moral responsibility that compels him to speak out and present a full portrait of a man who presents us with a clear and present danger Using observations gained from a close study of Trump s patterns of thought action and communication Dr Frank uncovers a personality riddled with mental health issues His analysis is filled with important revelations about our nation s leader including disturbing insights into his childhood his family his business dealings and his unusual relationship with alternative facts including how The absence of a strong maternal force during childhood has led to Trump s remarkable lack of empathy and disregard for women s boundaries His compulsion to polarize America has grown out of the way he perceives the world as full of deceitful and destructive persecutors His inability to tolerate the pain of frustration has triggered his belief that omnipotence will finally remove it His idiosyncratic use of language points to larger issues than even his tweets might suggest With our country itself at stake Dr Frank calls attention to the underlying narcissism misogyny deception and racism that drive the President who endangers it A penetrating examination of how we as a nation got here and more important where we are going Trump on the Couch sounds a call to action that we cannot ignore Thermidor Leslie Herzberger, 2006-12-27 The history of the United States in the last thirty years its preoccupation with the Vietnam War and the devastating affects of that war on the psyche of this nation is evidence of a foreign policy tragedy Foreign policy tragedy brings domestic tragedy in its wake The purpose of this study is to work out why the approaches to social revolution and that is what the Vietnam War was about have been wrong on both sides of the ideological spectrum the last thirty years in the U S point out why they were wrong point to where they were wrong and point to the consequences of acting in a society when the perceptions are in certain respects wrong Let me sum up my perception on what went wrong in Vietnam It was a Right wing war fought on Left wing premises It was a war that could not have been won because those who designed it would not or could not win it but were also afraid of losing it It was a war that was wrongly perceived by both sides of the ideological spectrum The Liberal argument was that America tried everything and still lost it The Conservative argument was that it could have been won if the opposition had not tied their hands keeping them from an all out effort that would have been required to win it The war was started in earnest by the Liberals under Kennedy The strategy was to roll up the enemy by hitting on the peasant and through it cut off the leaders Pacification education re education indoctrination and the introduction of self defense techniques to the South Vietnamese peasants was meant to stop the revolution exported from the North in its tracks The U S policy was predicated on the assumption that the peasants really had something to do with the ruling functions of the North Vietnamese revolution after Thermidor that after the onset of Thermidor after the institutionalization of the revolution in Hanoi the revolution was still revolution The Liberal approach has believed that revolution is tantamount to Mao s view of it in China peasants all immersed in the revolutionary process as fish in the sea And so you would have to drain the very ocean itself to stop it Our approach to the post revolutionary process is that after the onset of Thermidor in a society revolution is a bunch of terror informed super bureaucrats at the center of a society increasingly cut off from the periphery In a post revolutionary society it is the leaders that matter not the fish in the sea So bombing the small fish into fish soup hell in response as did the West in Vietnam in that war every tree every outhouse every shack and every village until they drop so much ordinance that the entire region is brain dead from defoliants and pockmarks and natural calamities while leaving the center untouched would seem insane Yet that was the policy in Vietnam of America And then nothing happened Nothing happened week after week year after year except that America itself was being driven mad doing the same thing and expecting it to come out different That as the President elect said in 1993 was and is insanity But what choice did they all have The pro war liberal American leadership that designed the war in Vietnam did not dare bomb Hanoi the capitol of North Vietnam for fear of triggering World War III with Red China and with Soviet Russia both of whose client North Vietnam was So they tied their own hands figuring that by coming through the back door fish in the sea style piece by piece nobody will notice in China and Russia ergo no World War III So they took a strategy that was insane and made a virtue out of its necessity They tied their own hand And then they blamed the opposition for forcing them to fight with their hands tied behind their backs On the other h
