Cbt Treatment Manuals:

Handbook of Evidence-Based Treatment Manuals for Children and Adolescents Craig Winston LeCroy, 2008-04-18

With the advance of evidence based practice has come the publication of numerous dense volumes reviewing the theoretical and empirical components of child and adolescent treatment. There are also a variety of detailed treatment manuals that describe the step by step procedures to guide ongoing research and practice. The second edition of Craig Winston LeCroy's Handbook of Evidence Based Child and Adolescent Treatment Manuals is a forceful combination of the two approaches as he gathers fifteen varied treatment manuals and brief summaries of the research supporting each to ensure that practitioners will truly understand how to implement the treatments they are using. A completely revised and expanded edition of the handbook's first edition, this is an essential guide to some of the best programs for helping children and teens. Each chapter begins with an explanatory section that discusses the theoretical and empirical underpinnings of the programs. The treatment manual follows, leading readers through sessions with specific details about conducting the treatment that have been refined and improved through extensive testing and research. Organized into three sections: the major clinical disorders, social problems confronting children and teens, and preventive interventions, the Handbook brings together some of the most esteemed researcher/practitioners in the child and adolescent field. The book presents an impressive variety of innovative treatment programs and techniques, including the SiHLE program intended to prevent problems confronting children and teens and preventive interventions. The Handbook brings together some of the most esteemed researcher/practitioners in the child and adolescent field. The book presents an impressive variety of innovative treatment programs and techniques, including the SiHLE program intended to prevent HIV through education and self-esteem building, the Children of Divorce Intervention Program, a therapy for younger children stressing resilience and skill building, and Strengths Oriented Family Therapy, which reaches out to substance involved adolescents and their families. The Handbook of Evidence Based Child and Adolescent Treatment Manuals is an indispensable reference for researchers, graduate students, and practitioners working with children and adolescents in a multitude of settings, from schools and juvenile correction centers to group homes and family service agencies.

Sourcebook of Psychological Treatment Manuals for Adult Disorders Michel

Hersen, Vincent B. Van Hasselt, 2013-11-11. Here is a practical reference offering mental health professionals 16 state-of-the-art methods for treating a variety of problems presented by outpatient and inpatient adult clients. Supported by ample clinical illustrations, each chapter offers sufficient information so that the respective methods can be replicated. Problems include obsessive compulsive disorder, depression, schizophrenia, and obesity. The book also examines contemporary issues of accountability in treatment. This handbook meets the needs of psychologists, psychiatrists, counselors, social workers, rehabilitation specialists, and graduate students.

Cognitive-behavioral Coping Skills Therapy Manual, 1992

Handbook of Child and Adolescent Treatment Manuals Craig W. LeCroy, 1994. In the field of child and adolescent therapy there are numerous books describing theories and techniques of treatment. Until now there has been no clear presentation of how such theories translate into day to day practice. Craig LeCroy offers specific treatment manuals for carrying out particular programs including group treatment for children of divorce for social skills training and for the prevention of drug use as well as treatment of childhood anxiety and depression of academic problems of conduct disorders and for anger management among others. Each treatment manual is based on extensive field testing by the author. The Handbook of Child and Adolescent Treatment Manuals provides practitioners, students and researchers with specific methods and procedures used with children and adolescents. Each chapter is a specific treatment guide that has been tested and carefully refined through use, presenting concrete step by step instructions for effectively treating various child and adolescent behavior problems. The book covers the major clinical disorders and social problems facing children and adolescents as well as new developments and refinements in the treatment of these problems. Experts in the field provide descriptions of treatment approaches for rational emotive therapy with children, social skills training, anger control training, adolescent relapse prevention, divorce adjustment groups, parent adolescent conflict and more. The Handbook of Child and Adolescent Treatment Manuals is designed to be an important reference handbook for practitioners in various child and adolescent settings including schools, mental health clinics, residential treatment centers, group homes, family service agencies and juvenile correction centers.

Encyclopedia of Cognitive Behavior Therapy Stephanie Felgoise, Arthur M. Nezu, Christine M. Nezu, Mark A. Reinecke, 2006-06-18. One of the hallmarks of cognitive behavior therapy is its diversity today. Since its inception over twenty five years ago, this once revolutionary approach to psychotherapy has grown to encompass treatments across the full range of psychological disorders. The Encyclopedia of Cognitive Behavior Therapy brings together all of the key aspects of this field, distilling decades of clinical wisdom into one authoritative volume. With a preface by Aaron T. Beck, founder of the cognitive approach, the Encyclopedia features entries by noted experts including Arthur Freeman, Windy Dryden, Marsha Linehan, Edna Foa and Thomas Ollendick, to name but a few, and reviews the latest empirical data on first line therapies and combination approaches to give readers both insights into clients' problems and the most effective treatments available. Common disorders and conditions: anxiety, depression, OCD, phobias, sleep disturbance, eating disorders, grief, anger. Essential components of treatment: the therapeutic relationship, case formulation, homework, relapse prevention. Treatment methods: dialectical behavior therapy, REBT, paradoxical interventions.
