Rethinking Gender Equality in Global Governance Lars Engberg-Pedersen, Adam Fejerskov, Signe Marie Cold-Ravnkilde, 2019-04-26 A very valuable and much needed book on a central element in the processes of social change the construction and reconstruction of social norms as they move between global and local levels Naila Kabeer London School of Economics and Political Science UK This book explores how gender equality norms are ever evolving and argues convincingly that we cannot take their effectiveness nor their acceptance for granted Judith Kelley Duke Sanford School of Public Policy USA In an era of increasing resistance to gender equality this is a much needed volume that attends to how gender equality norms are interpreted and contested in governance organisations ranging from the UN and the EU to Mercosur and women s NGOs in India and Uganda Ann Towns University of Gothenburg Sweden This edited collection provides a new theoretical approach to the study of how global norms influence social processes It analyses the institutional and highly political processes whereby actors be they local national regional or trans national engage with global norms of gender equality The editors bring together key thinkers who emphasise how context and history effect norm engagement and how particular groups and actors tend to be marginalised from discussions of global norms By proposing a situated approach that underlines the contingent multi level processes that occur when actors interpret use manipulate bend or betray norms notions of norm diffusion are fundamentally challenged This book makes a further crucial contribution to the study of norms and gender equality in global governance by analysing very different empirical contexts from New Delhi and St Petersburg to the Organisation of American States and from Kampala and New York to the European Union Reshaping the Holy Elora Shehabuddin,2008-07-28

Through extensive field research Elora Shehabuddin explores the profound implications of women s political and social mobilization for reshaping Islam Specifically she examines the lives of Muslim women in Bangladesh who have become increasingly mobilized by the activities of predominantly secular NGOs yet who desire to retain reclaim and reshape rather than reject their faith In their employment and in their interactions with the legal system the state NGOs and political and religious groups women are changing state practices views of women in the public sphere and the nature of lived Islam itself In contrast to most work on Islam and Muslims which has focused on the Middle East and has privileged the study of religious and legal texts this book redirects our attention to South Asia home to one of the largest Muslim populations in the world and emphasizes the actual experiences of Muslims Women and gender as well as Bangladesh s formally democratic context are central to this inquiry and analysis
