Library Collection Development Policies Frank Hoffmann, Richard J. Wood, 2005-08-25 This book represents an ongoing effort to fill the void in the library literature relating to collection development policies The authors whose experience each spans four decades as library educators and practitioners created the book as well as a forthcoming companion volume devoted to school libraries to assist both library school students and professionals in the field in the compilation revision and implementation of collection development policies Cutting edge trends such as digital document delivery and library cooperation are also covered Furthermore given the premise that a well rounded policy reflects all activities concerning the collection management process including the evaluation selection acquisition and weeding of information resources it is hoped that this work will also prove useful to non librarians possessing some kind of stake in high quality library holdings such as library board members politicians and administrators directly responsible for library operations and institutional patrons

Comic Books and Comic Strips in the United States through 2005 John Lent, 2006-04-30 This final work in John Lent's series of bibliographies on comic art gathers together an astounding array of citations on American comic books and comic strips Included in this volume are citations regarding anthologies and reprints criticism and reviews exhibitions festivals and awards scholarship and theory and the business artistic cultural legal technical and technological aspects of American comics Author John Lent has used all manner of methods to gather the citations searching library and online databases contacting scholars and other professionals attending conferences and festivals and scanning hundreds of periodicals He has gone to great length to categorize the citations in an easy to use scholarly fashion and in the process has helped to establish the field of comic art as an important part of social science and humanities research The ten volumes in this series covering all regions of the world constitute the largest printed bibliography of comic art in the world and serve as the beacon guiding the burgeoning fields of animation comics and cartooning They are the definitive works on comic art research and are exhaustive in their inclusiveness covering all types of publications academic trade popular fan etc from all over the world Also included in these books are citations to systematically researched academic exercises as well as more ephemeral sources such as fanzines press articles and fugitive materials conference papers unpublished documents etc attesting to Lent's belief that all pieces of information are vital in a new field of study such as comic art

Alternative Comics Charles Hatfield, 2009-11-12 In the 1980s a sea change occurred in comics Fueled by Art Spiegelman and Françoise Mouly's avant garde anthology Raw and the launch of the Love Rockets series by Gilbert Jaime and Mario Hernandez the decade saw a deluge of comics that were more autobiographical emotionally realistic and experimental than anything seen before These alternative comics were not the scatological satires of the 1960s underground nor were they brightly colored newspaper strips or superhero comic books In Alternative Comics: An Emerging Literature Charles Hatfield establishes the parameters of alternative comics by closely examining long form comics in particular the graphic novel He argues that these are fundamentally a literary form and offers an extensive critical study of them both as a literary genre and as a cultural phenomenon Combining sharp eyed readings and illustrations from particular texts with a larger understanding of the comics as an art form this book discusses the development of specific genres such as autobiography and history Alternative Comics analyzes such seminal works as Spiegelman's Maus Gilbert Hernandez's Palomar The Heartbreak Soup Stories and Justin Green's Binky Brown Meets the Holy Virgin Mary Hatfield explores how issues outside of cartooning the marketplace production demands work schedules can affect the final work Using Hernandez's Palomar as an example he shows how serialization may determine the way a cartoonist structures a narrative In a close look at Maus Binky Brown and Harvey Pekar's American Splendor Hatfield teases out the complications of creating biography and autobiography in a substantially visual medium and shows how creators approach these issues in radically different ways

Adopting the Beat of Appearance: An Psychological Symphony within Comic Collections For Libraries
