are no apertures for ventilation yet the air is fresh There are no musical instruments and yet at the moment that my meditation opens this room is throbbing with melodious sounds An arm chair is in the centre by its side a reading desk that is all the furniture And in the arm chair there sits a swaddled lump of flesh a woman about five feet high with a face as white as a fungus It is to her that the little room belongs An electric bell rang The woman touched a switch and the music was silent I suppose I must see who it is she thought and set her chair in motion The chair like the music was worked by machinery and it rolled her to the other side of the room where the bell still rang importunately Who is it she called Her voice was irritable for she had been interrupted often since the music began She knew several thousand people in certain directions human intercourse had advanced enormously But when she listened into the receiver her white face wrinkled into smiles and she said Very well Let us talk I will isolate myself I do not expect anything important will happen for the next five minutes for I can give you fully five minutes Kuno Then I must deliver my lecture on Music during the Australian Period She touched the isolation knob so that no one else could speak to her Then she touched the lighting apparatus and the little room was plunged into darkness Be quick she called her irritation returning Be quick Kuno here I am in the dark wasting my time But it was fully fifteen seconds before the round plate that she held in her hands began to glow A faint blue light shot across it darkening to purple and presently she could see the image of her son who lived on the other side of the earth and he could see her Kuno how slow you are He smiled gravely I really believe you enjoy dawdling I have called you before mother but you were always busy or isolated I have something particular to say What is it dearest boy Be quick Why could you not send it by pneumatic post Because I prefer saying such a thing I want Well I want you to come and see me Vashti watched his face in the blue plate But I can see you she exclaimed What more do you want I want to see you not through the Machine said Kuno I want to speak to you not through the wearisome Machine Oh hush said his mother vaguely shocked You mustn't say anything against the Machine Why not One mustn't You talk as if a god had made the Machine cried the other I believe that you pray to it when you are unhappy Men made it do not forget that Great men but men The Machine is much but it is not everything I see something like you in this plate but I do not see you I hear something like you through this telephone but I do not hear you That is why I want you to come Come and stop with me Pay me a visit so that we can meet face to face and talk about the hopes that are in my mind
