Cold Intimacies The Making Of Emotional Capitalism:

Cold Intimacies Eva Illouz, 2007-02-12 Intro Title page Copyright page Contents Acknowledgments 1 The Rise of Homo Sentimentalis Freud and the Clark lectures A new emotional style The communicative ethic as the spirit of the corporation The roses and thorns of the modern family Conclusion 2 Suffering Emotional Fields and Emotional Capital Introduction The self realization narrative Emotional fields emotional habitus The pragmatics of psychology Conclusion 3 Romantic Webs Romancing the Internet Virtual meetings Ontological self presentation Fantasy and disappointment Conclusion A new Machiavellian move Notes Index Cold Intimacies Eva Illouz, 2013-04-23 It is commonly assumed that capitalism has created an a emotional world dominated by bureaucratic rationality that economic behavior conflicts with intimate authentic relationships that the public and private spheres are irremediably opposed to each other and that true love is opposed to calculation and self interest Eva Illouz rejects these conventional ideas and argues that the culture of capitalism has fostered an intensely emotional culture in the workplace in the family and in our own relationship to ourselves She argues that economic relations have become deeply emotional while close intimate relationships have become increasingly defined by economic and political models of bargaining exchange and equity This dual process by which emotional and economic relationships come to define and shape each other is called emotional capitalism Illouz finds evidence of this process of emotional capitalism in various social sites self help literature women s magazines talk shows support groups and the Internet dating sites How did this happen What are the social consequences of the current preoccupation with emotions How did the public sphere become saturated with the exposure of private life Why does suffering occupy a central place in contemporary identity How has emotional capitalism transformed our romantic choices and experiences Building on and revising the intellectual legacy of critical theory this book addresses these questions and offers a new interpretation of the reasons why the public and the private the economic and the emotional spheres have become inextricably intertwined

Romantic Relationships in a Time of 'Cold Intimacies' Julia Carter, Lorena Arocha, 2019-10-31 This book addresses the nature of intimacy and relationships in a time of what Eva Illouz characterizes as cold intimacies The contributors to this collection highlight the ambivalence and tensions contained in intimacy by uncovering a nuanced and complex dynamic in which interpersonal relations and the public sphere are mutually constituted A range of topics are explored including the new conditions of choice the abundance of partners class and emotional competence rational decision making and the specific forms of love pain which can emerge from cooled intimacy The chapters also shed light on the limits of this theoretical contribution highlighting the importance of parenting violence poverty and other material constraints that continue to limit and frame individuals romantic choices Overall this volume presents an interpretation of intimacy that is not just cold but includes practices desires and feelings that are safe and dangerous that bring solace or erupt in violence that lead to salvation or condemnation and where virtual encounters and increased internal and crossborder mobility have altered the relationship between intimacy and physical emotional distance Romantic Relationships in a Time of Cold Intimacies will be of interest to scholars and students across a range of disciplines including sociology social work social policy and demography as well as practitioners and policy makers with an interest in couple relationships Capitalist Cold Agnes Arndt, Kerstin Maria Pahl, 2025-01-24 The capitalist system has often been described by its critics as a heartless economic structure corroding social bonds and symbolic values Its defenders and analysts likewise use narratives that position emotions as central to the economy This book enquires into the history of these framings To explore the role of emotions in economic practices and imaginaries the volume presents case studies including original rereadings of well known texts such as Theodor Adorno and Max Horkheimer's Dialectic of Enlightenment as well as forays into little known histories such as representations of capitalists in post war Turkey and how art dealers strategically used emotions for navigating the market in interwar Germany Rather than simply reproducing the image of cold capitalism however it offers nuanced investigations into the ambivalent images evoked by living and working within economic structures In late socialist Poland capitalism felt warm and fuzzy while pop culture of the seventies found it not destructive but cool hip and edgy This book is aimed at students and scholars of social economic and cultural history The Open Access version of this book available at www.taylorfrancis.com has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

The Emotional Economy of Holidaymaking Yaara Benger Alaluf, 2021-03-04 It is often taken for granted that holiday resorts sell intangible commodities such as freedom enjoyment pleasure and relaxation But how did the desire for a happy holiday emerge how was the right to rest legitimized and how are emotions produced by commercial enterprises To answer these questions The Emotional Economy of Holidaymaking explores the rise of popular holidaymaking in late nineteenth century Britain which is generally considered to be the birthplace of mass tourism Drawing on a wide range of texts including medical literature parliamentary debates advertisements travel guides popular stories and personal accounts the book unravels the role emotions played in British spa and seaside holiday cultures Introducing the concept of an emotional economy Yaara Benger Alaluf traces the overlapping impact that psychological and economic thought had on moral ideals and performative practices of work and leisure Through a vivid account of changing attitudes toward health pleasure social class and gender in late Victorian and Edwardian Britain she explains why the democratization of holidaymaking went hand in hand with its emotionalization Combining the history of emotions with the sociology of commodification the book offers an innovative approach to the study of the leisure and entertainment industries and a better understanding of how medicalized conceptions of emotions influenced people's dispositions desires consumption habits and civil rights Looking ahead to the central place of tourism in twenty first century societies and its relation to stress and burnout The Emotional Economy of Holidaymaking calls on future research of past and present leisure cultures to take emotions seriously and to rethink notions of rationality authenticity and agency Psychopolitics Byung-Chul Han, 2025-06-24 Exploring how neoliberalism has discovered the productive force of the psyche Byung Chul Han a star of German philosophy continues his passionate critique of neoliberalism trenchantly describing a regime of technological domination that in contrast to Foucault's biopower has discovered the productive force of the psyche In the course of discussing all the facets of neoliberal psychopolitics fueling our contemporary crisis of freedom Han elaborates an analytical framework that provides an original theory of Big Data and a lucid phenomenology of emotion But this provocative essay proposes counter models too presenting a wealth of ideas and surprising alternatives at every turn

Narcissistic Parenting in an Insecure World Harry Hendrick, 2016-07-06 Harry Hendrick shows how broader social changes including neoliberalism feminism the collapse of the social democratic ideal and the new behaviourism have led to the rise of the anxious and narcissistic parent In this provocative history of parenting
