Hospitable Witnessing Priscilla Sun Kyung Oh, 2018-06-18 Drawing on her own experience of befriending a person suffering from a long term mental health challenge Priscilla Oh reflects on the meaning of care and friendship theologically Using autoethnography she goes beyond the personal experience and examines various issues surrounding mental health Hospitable Witnessing candidly takes readers into the everyday life of being with a mentally ill person There are emotional challenges and contingencies in sustaining friendship and caring for a person with a long term mental health problem Oh points out that those who care for a loved one during a long term illness inevitably experience burnout resulting from the constant care requirements Under such an enormous disruption we need to be compassionate toward another s suffering and be willing to be present and available for them This book suggests our need of one another and identifies three important Christian practices caring as we are being made in the image of God compassion as being present with the sufferer and lament as to revitalize our faith and hope

A World Scientific Encyclopedia Of Business Storytelling, Set 1: Corporate And Business Strategies Of Business Storytelling (A 5-volume Set) ,2023-08-17 This set of multi reference works is meant to be read together as the five volumes interlace one another like the laces of a shoe in the famous painting by Vincent van Gogh Who will wear the shoes is a question long debated in art history and philosophy If we take these five volumes from different points of view on the theory and practice of business storytelling then we have a crisscrossing a new and impressive dialogue for the reader This set is presented as a new way to lace up the laces of business storytelling Volume 1 aims to recount narratives in a variety of ways so that the precepts of entrepreneurial storytelling can be made accessible to a variety of audiences academic practitioner student and community member Entrepreneurship has a long history and tradition but there are disputed ways of doing business storytelling in entrepreneurship that the next four volumes articulate Volume 2 provides insights into stories fostering the idea of business and not necessarily business itself It focuses specifically on history contributing to the current debates within management and organizational history around the idea of the historic turn It reflects on the idea of business and beyond could there be more to history and business storytelling than what has previously been accepted in the field This book sets out to explore a diverse array of alternative modes and multiple ways of storying organizations The editors intentionally sought to involve an international network of authors with diverse storytelling accounts of history as a way of helping build out this new storytelling paradigm in a diverse and inclusive ethic As a result this volume showcases a broad spectrum of critical storytelling from geographically diverse authors working in universities small businesses and public service throughout Brazil Canada Finland the United Kingdom and the United States To reflect these dynamics and for the stories in this volume to fit together chapters were organized into three themes stories of processing history tales of history as method and narratives of history through a business opportunity Volume 3 features stories that reflect the exacerbated inequalities of race gender and income across the world These inequalities and power relations remain continuously con tested particularly in these trying times despite being captive to a particular economic ideology built on the premise of exploitation and subjugation The stories told in this volume tell against the orthodoxy the colonizer and the seemingly powerful They are organized as stories of resistance emancipation and transformation They invite us to rethink the multiple ways to re structure power relations between the colonizer and the colonized and open up spaces for the marginalized underprivileged voices Volume 4 is designed to create a new business storytelling paradigm that critically approaches business narratives that have historically privileged a corporate agenda It explores the various ways that images of the other in business are developed presented and accounted for through powerful and dominant narratives The stories in this volume collectively help readers to understand resist and provide strategies for change through various analyses of how business narratives come to develop get written are legitimized are challenged and get changed over time Volume 5 brings together the practices specific to the socioeconomic approach to management SEAM SEAM is a method of change management developed through research interventions carried out in more than 2 000 companies and organizations since 1975 This method is systemic it considers the whole company and tends to simultaneously increase social and economic performance by focusing mainly on the development of human skills and behaviors making it possible to reduce dysfunctions and recycle hidden costs into added value Autoethnography as Method Heewon Chang,2016-07 This methods book will guide the reader through the process of conducting and producing an autoethnographic study through the understanding of self other and culture Readers will be encouraged to follow hands on though not prescriptive steps in data collection analysis and interpretation with self reflective prewriting exercises and self narrative writing exercises to produce their own autoethnographic work Chang offers a variety of techniques for gathering data on the self from diaries to culture grams to interviews with others and shows how to transform this information into a study that looks for the connection with others present in a diverse world She shows how the autoethnographic process promotes self reflection understanding of multicultural others qualitative inquiry and narrative writing Samples of published autoethnographies provide exemplars for the novice researcher to follow The Pocketbook of Audience Research Joke Hermes,Linda Kopitz,2023-12-18 Focusing on qualitative methods The Pocketbook of Audience Research uses contemporary global television and cross media examples to explain essential approaches to audience research and outline how they can be employed This handy guide is divided into three parts the first part Watching Post Television offers television as a shortcut to understanding today s platform media and gives an introduction to key theoretical terms such as representation identity and community The second part Methods with Method introduces different methodological tools to study cross media texts and practices from an audience led perspective With individual chapters covering ethnography textual analysis and visual methodologies this part also functions as a toolset and starting point for small research projects The third part Methods in Action offers a variety of recent case studies to show how these methodological principles work in practice Drawing on different genres from drama to sports The Pocketbook of Audience Research gives a sense of what audience led cross media research can achieve This concise accessible book gives students early career researchers and creative professionals the tools to do useful and inspiring audience research whether for a paper a proposal or a market survey Polyvocal
