

Collective Bargaining Agreement

2.1 Bargaining Unit. The University of Florida Board of Trustees (hereinafter recognizes the United Faculty of Florida (hereinafter the UFF, or UFF) as the exclusive representative for the purpose of collective bargaining with respect to wages, hours, terms and conditions of employment for all faculty members in the bargaining unit in Commission Order No. 05E-195, Certification No. 1558, issued by the Florida Employees Relations Commission on September 9, 2005 or as subsequently modified Commission Order. A listing of the titles currently included in the faculty bargaining attached as Appendix "A."

2.2 Job Classification.

(a) New or revised position classifications with job duties that include a teaching or research component and whose duties have traditionally come under of an administrative unit within the bargaining unit or otherwise significantly overlap positions currently within the bargaining unit shall be treated as within the bargaining unit pending a final determination to the contrary by the Public Employees Relations Commission. New or revised faculty position classifications with job duties that do not include a teaching or research component and whose duties have not traditionally come with purview of an administrative unit within the bargaining unit or otherwise do not significantly overlap duties of positions currently within the bargaining unit shall not be regarded as within the bargaining unit, pending a final determination to the contrary by the Public Employees Relations Commission.

(b) The University may create new position classifications with job duties that include a substantial teaching or research component or otherwise significantly overlap positions currently within the bargaining unit only after discussions with the UFF regarding the nature and necessity of the new position classifications and whether they will be designated within or outside the bargaining unit, unless the UFF notifies the University in writing that it does not object to the new classification or designation. If the UFF does not request such discussions within thirty (30) days after notification of the proposed classification, the University may proceed to implement it.
