Deleuze, Guattari and the Schizoanalysis of the Global Pandemic Saswat Samay Das, Ananya Roy Pratihari, 2023-05-18 A vital response to the COVID 19 pandemic this volume connects the neoliberal underpinnings of the pandemic to the philosophy of Deleuze and Guattari

By positioning the worst outcomes of the COVID 19 crisis in terms of neoliberal normativity contributors argue that we need to understand the pandemic rhizomatically. Construed as an event that deterritorializes the globe, the crisis of the pandemic contains within it the potential for creating new assemblages, alliances and solidarities to offset the power of the state in building regimes of exclusion, insulation and control. Deleuzo-Guattarian attention towards non-human life finds new meaning in the context of the virus and our understanding of what constitutes life and inorganic life. Crisis, capitalism and revolution are read anew through the pandemic and core Deleuzo-Guattarian concepts help to situate the proliferation of new models of mutual aid, sustainability and care in the context of anti-capitalist critique.

Art, Elitism, Authenticity and Liberty Paul Clements, 2024-08-20

This book excavates the depths of creative purpose and meaning-making and the extent to which artist autonomy and authenticity in art is a struggle against psychological conditioning, controlling cultural institutions and markets, key to which is representation. The chapters are underpinned by examples from the arts and the narrative weaves a trail through a range of conceptualizations that are applied to various aspects of visual culture from mainstream canonical arts to avant-garde, community and public art, social and political art to commercial art and ethereal art to the popular, edgy and kitsch. The book is wide-ranging and employs various aesthetic, cultural, philosophical, political, psycho-social and sociological debates to highlight the problems and contradictions that an encounter with the arts and creativity engenders. The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history, museum studies, arts management, cultural policy, cultural studies and cultural theory.
