Migration and Social Cohesion in the UK M. Hickman, N. Mai, H. Crowley, 2012-05-03 Based on a flagship research project for the Joseph Rowntree Foundation's Immigration and Inclusion programme this book argues that social cohesion is achieved through people new arrivals as well as the long term settled being able to resolve the conflicts and tensions within their day to day lives in ways that they find positive and viable

Gender, Work and Community After De-Industrialisation V. Walkerdine, L. Jimenez, 2012-01-17 How does an industrial community cope when they are told that closure is inevitable What if this is only the last in a 200 year long line of threats insecurities and closure How did people weather the storms and how do they face the future now While attempts to regenerate communities are everywhere we do not often hear from the people themselves just how they managed to create safe collective spaces or how the fall of the whole house of cards brought with it effects which can be felt by young people who never knew the town when it was an industrial heartland We hear the story of how men and women tried to cope and still want to retain their community in the face of its destruction What can they and will they have to pass to the next generation and where will that leave the young people themselves who have nothing to stay for but are unable to leave This book examines these crucial questions facing post industrial societies

Introducing Gender and Women's Studies Diane Richardson, Victoria Robinson, 2020-04-22 At a time where after decades of progress in gender and sexual rights people in many parts of the world are facing new forms of resistance and opposition to gender equality this timely publication confirms the continuing importance and relevance of gender and women's studies The fifth edition of this best selling textbook provides a comprehensive overview of key issues and debates in gender and feminist theory With fully revised chapters written by specialists across a range of core topics including sexuality race bodies family masculinity methodologies and migration this clearly written but rigorous collection examines contemporary debates and provides helpful examples and questions to consider Furthermore it continues to reflect the shift from women's studies to gender studies incorporating coverage of masculinity throughout as well as discussing live debates such as around global activism transgender rights and the environment It continues to be an indispensable resource for students academics and anyone interested in this lively field New to this Edition A new chapter on gender and migration Expanded discussion of transgender rights as well as masculinity studies Brings seven new contributors to the collection with newly authored chapters on Gender and Environment Gender and Education Gender and Sexuality and Gender and Race Fully revised and updated with new material and new case examples Greater attention to intersectional approaches and international reach
