Jacques Tati David Bellos, 2012-04-17 The full story of one of France s greatest cinema legends a clown whose film making innovation was to turn everyday life into an art form Jacques Tati s Monsieur Hulot unmistakable with his pipe broly and striped socks was a creation of slapstick genius that made audiences around the world laugh at the sheer absurdity of life This biography charts Tati s rise and fall from his earliest beginnings as a music hall mime during the Depression to the success of Jour de F te and Mon Oncle to Playtime the grandiose masterpiece that left the once celebrated director bankrupt and begging for equipment to complete his final films Analysing Tati s singular vision Bellos reveals the intricate staging of his most famous gags and draws upon hitherto inaccessible archives to produce a unique assessment of his work and its context for film lovers and film students alike

The Literary World ,1878 The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science and Art ,1896 The Discursive Construction of Migrant Identities Charlotte Taylor, Simon Goodman, Stuart Dunmore, 2025-01-23 This edited volume explores how migrant identities are created and constructed in discourse both by migrants themselves and by others The contributors reveal how migrant identities are discursively constructed by those with lived experiences of mobility and those who view themselves as part of the host population This dual focus responds to a lack of previous research examining migration representation from both perspectives Readers will discover how the discursive constructions of migrant identities in different domains relate to one another The case studies include a broad range of text types from film government documents and narrative accounts to newspapers and Twitter They also cover a wide range of contexts including Argentina Australia Italy Romania and UK making this is a more comprehensive account of the framing of migration than has been previously accomplished The chapters all follow the same structure to help the reader learn how to investigate migration discourses using qualitative and quantitative critical discourse analytic approaches
