exploring the relationship between lyric and dramatic elements on stage and what these two different modes afford To demonstrate this continuity it traces a genealogy from contemporary plays by Joanna Laurens Joyelle McSweeney and David Grieg back to W B Yeats Gertrude Stein T S Eliot and W H Auden to reveal that the tensions that animate verse drama have stayed the same even as the strategies for staging them have evolved The book is divided into three sections Voice Words and Time each treating one feature that has been used to define the lyric Within these sections the chapters compare contemporary plays with modernist ones that experiment with the same point of tension between the lyric and the dramatic
