

A photograph of a Spanish-style house. In the foreground, a curved staircase with a dark metal railing leads up. The railing has a decorative scrollwork design. The steps are made of reddish-brown tiles. To the right, there is a tiled fountain with a blue and white patterned background and a central urn. The house has a light-colored stucco wall. The overall style is reminiscent of early 20th-century California architecture.

Vernon Swaback FAIA is extremely passionate about his craft and that is very evident in both his words and his own completed work Swaback continues the Frank Lloyd Wright tradition of thoughtful and highly intelligent strategies for making homes rathe Santa Barbara Style Kathryn Masson,2001 The architectural identity of the wealthy southern California town Santa Barbara is explored with emphasis on the architects who designed its major buildings estates and historic homes 200 illustrations Carefree California: Cliff May and the Romance of the Ranch House Nicholas Olsberg,Jocelyn Gibbs,2012-09-04 This landmark volume is an authoritative richly illustrated examination of the origins evolution and influence of the California ranch house Carefree California looks at a legendary figure in Southern California design Cliff May and the ubiquitous domestic icon his name evokes the ranch house We also see how other architects from George Washington Smith to Rudolph Schindler pursued different paths toward the same kind of relaxed domesticity exemplified by the ranch house By the late 50s much of the world was fascinated with California living and with the ranch house in particular which derived from architects evocation and reworking of distinctive regional traditions allied with the pervasive romance and myths of the California frontier and from the cultivation of a domestic architecture that could serve distinctively Californian ways of carefree living By uncovering patterns for living that suited the automobile age among the almost archaic forms and rhythms of mission and pioneer dwellings an extraordinary range of modernism emerged that was at once grounded in history and soaring into the space age Contract Design ,1997 California Romantica Diane Keaton,D. J. Waldie,2007 California Romantica features the most important yet rarely seen residential exemplars of the California Mission and Spanish Colonial styles by such noted architects as George Washington Smith Wallace Neff Richard Requa Lilian Rice and Paul R Williams among others From whitewashed stucco walls and cloistered patios to tile roofs and sumptuous gardens each house shown is a rare masterpiece splendidly appointed with authentic Monterey furniture California tile and Navajo rugs Among the magnificent seaside estates canyon villas and courtyard bungalows shown is Diane Keaton s former home in Beverly Hills which she thoughtfully restored with noted designer Stephen Shadley and for which she has been recognized as a committed preservationist She brings her cinematic eye a keen sense of natural drama and a profound appreciation for the nuances of shadow and light to the elucidation of these buildings through the selection of specially commissioned photography Authoritative text by D J Waldie lucidly explicates the architecture and provides an intimate tour of a historic and distinctly Californian lifestyle Time Out Los Angeles Editors of Time Out,2013-04-22 The
