Catholic Reluctantly:

Catholic, Reluctantly Christian M. Frank, 2011-10-01 The seven students of a newly established real Catholic high school try to learn and do what is right as they face the possibility that their building will be condemned personality conflicts and problems with the nearby public high school where two of them are on the wrestling team Reluctant Prophet Mike Deeb, Philippe Denis, Mark James, 2023-07-01 This book is a collection of essays in honour of Albert Nolan OP who died in October 2022 at the age of 88 Awarded the Order of Luthuli in Silver by then President Thabo Mbeki in 2003 for his life long dedication to the struggle for democracy human rights and justice and for challenging the religious dogma especially the theological justification for apartheid Nolan inspired a generation of Christian activists and theologians From 1973 1980 he served as national chaplain for the National Catholic Federation of Students NCFS and also until 1980 for the Catholic Students Association CASA which was formed in 1976 after black students began organising themselves into separate formations as Black Consciousness flourished In 1977 Nolan was instrumental in establishing Young Christian Students movement YCS in South Africa The contributions in this volume come from people around the world who knew him or worked with him over the years The contributions deal with his family life his time with the student movements his life as Dominican his periods as Dominican Provincial in Southern Africa his involvement with the ANC his work as a writer a publisher of a journal and life in his later years There are over 65 contributions along with a Foreword by Timothy Radcliffe OP a former Master General of the Dominicans Catholic Fundamentalism in America Mark S. Massa, 2025-03-03 The term fundamentalism has its roots in specific forms of American Protestantism that arose around the turn of the twentieth century in reaction to liberalizing and modernizing trends within the church In this book Mark Massa argues that an analogously reactive militant and sectarian fundamentalist movement emerged within American Catholicism in the decades after World War II for a similarly complex mix of theological and cultural reasons In Catholic Fundamentalism in America Massa gives the first account of the Catholic form of the anti modernist impulse Massa recounts how Catholic fundamentalism has reacted both to the teachings of the Second Vatican Council and to the tensions of America's pluralist secular culture Like their Protestant cousins Catholic fundamentalists combine a sectarian understanding of religion with an aggressive anti progressive stance Their main enemies were not Protestants or secular Americans but other Catholics who didn't share their extreme views Also like the Protestant fundamentalists Catholic devotees of the fundamentalist impulse have sought and found political conservatives with whom to make common cause on a range of issues such as the place of women in American culture the value of pluralism within the Church and the larger culture and the importance of cooperation with non Catholics Contemporary Catholic conservatives merge theological and political impulses into movements that punch above their weight within the community through their clever use of social media Through seven portraits of individuals and movements that embody the Catholic fundamentalist impulse Massa demonstrates how the Catholic Right like its evangelical Protestant counterpart has reacted to and fought against modern American culture Keeping the Vow Donald Paul Sullins, 2016

Based on one hundred fifteen interviews augmented by biographical survey and historical research Keeping the Vow tells the story of married priests and their wives their unusual and difficult journey from Anglicanism and their life in the Catholic Church The book combines personal narratives and sociological analysis to provide a clear view of the priesthood's collective features and discusses the implications of the married priesthood for the future of the Church Reluctant Hosts: Europe and Its Refugees Danièle Joly, Robin Cohen, 2024-02-02 Now reissued with a new Preface by Robin Cohen and Danièle Joly this book was originally published in 1989 at a time when the reality of a single European Community had begun to materialize the comfortable belief that many European countries offered havens for those fleeing persecution This belief was undermined as governments sought to cope with xenophobic and racist sentiments by their indigenous populations This book with contributions from social scientists policy makers and representatives from many European countries discusses the response of European governments to the increasing demands by asylum seekers refugees and exiles for admission settlement and protection issues which remain as pertinent today as when the book was originally published Faith and Fiction of Muriel Spark Ruth Whittaker, 1984-06-18 The Next Pope Edward Pentin, 2020-07-07 When Pope Francis pontificate has passed it's very likely that one of the nineteen cardinals featured in these pages will be elected to become the next Supreme Pontiff of the Catholic Church OF DEMONS AND ANGELS: The Story of a Reluctant Exorcist and Ex - Priest Francis Chanda, 2022-08-24 Of Demons and Angels is a book that takes the reader into a unique life experience of an ex catholic priest This is a story of faith that gives an insight into the peculiar complex and most intriguing aspects of priesthood like celibacy and the difference between a real Christian and a pseudo one By adopting an informal writing and a deeply personal tone the author chooses not to hide but to treat such thorny issues with humility honesty lived experience faith and a deep sense of soul searching both as a Catholic Christian and as a former Catholic priest Francis Chilufya Chanda is currently Head of Section at St Mary's College of Education in Mbala Northern Province Before becoming a lecturer he was a Catholic priest for ten years in the Archdiocese of Lusaka Zambia After leaving priesthood he taught at Kasama Girls Secondary School in Kasama and St John's Secondary School where he was Head of Languages Department in an acting capacity in Malole Mungwi District He holds a Master's Degree in Communication for Development UNZA Lusaka Degree in Theology St Dominic's Major Seminary affiliated to Urbaniana University Rome Diploma in Philosophy Religious Studies Mpima Philosophic ate Seminary Kabwe Certificate in Public Relations under Adult Extension Studies UNZA and an Advanced Certificate in Teaching Methodology TVTC Luanshya Reluctant Warriors James Matthews, 2012-07-12 A comparative study of Nationalist Army and Republican Popular Army conscripts during the Spanish Civil War Draws extensively on unpublished archival material to analyse the conflict from the perspective of those who were involved against their will The Reluctant Land Cole Harris, 2009-01-01 The Reluctant Land describes the evolving pattern of settlement and the changing relationships of people and land in Canada from the end of the fifteenth century to the Confederation years of the late 1860s and early 1870s It shows how a deeply indigenous land was reconstituted in European terms and at the same time how European ways were recalibrated in this non European space It also shows how an archipelago of scattered settlement emerged out of an encounter with a parsimonious territory and suggests how deeply this encounter differed from an American relationship with abundance The book begins with a description of land and life in northern North America in 1500 and ends by considering the relationship between the pattern of early Canada and the country as we know it today Intended to illuminate the background of modern Canada The Reluctant Land is an intelligent discussion of people and place that will be welcomed by scholars and lay readers alike
