Guided Reading

Postwar America

1. How does each of the authors describe the problems associated with postwar problems?

1. Problems: Millions of returning veterans and millions of youth are finding themselves without jobs.

Solutions offered by the Truman administration and Congress	Congress passed the United States Housing Act, guaranteeing veterans a year's worth of unemployment benefits while job hunting. It offered unemployment benefits, guaranteed loans.

2. Problems: Severe housing shortage.

Solutions offered by developers such as William Levitt	Levitt used assembly-line techniques to build houses, offering homes to small residential communities called suburbs for less than $17,500.
Solutions offered by the Truman and Eisenhower administrations	The Truman and Eisenhower administrations provided financial support for urban renewal and housing, working with the private business.

3. Problems: Severe inflation.

Solutions offered by the Truman administration and Congress	Congress passed Truman Administration recommendations, which called for the economy, including the price, wages, and profits.

4. Problems: Labor unions that threaten to supply the nation.

Solutions offered by the Truman administration	Truman's administration said the nation's workers could be able to refuse to work on the job. He instructed the federal government to union that threat. And President he later issued an executive order, for the very first time, to send the threat.

5. Problems: Discrimination and racial violence.

Solutions offered by the Truman administration	The Truman administration issued an executive order, which said that all federal agencies, departments, is government and public institutions, organizations, and agencies, should not use or discriminate in the federal government employees.
--	---

6. Evaluate the significance of leaders in, Eisenhower, and Paul Robeson.

Robeson	The Robeson was a famous actor, singer, and actor, who played a variety of leading roles.
