Ageing, meaning and social structure Baars, Jan,Dohmen, Joseph,Grenier, Amanda,Phillipson, Chris,2014-08-20 Ageing meaning and social structure is a unique book advancing critical discourse in gerontology and makes a major contribution to understanding key social and ethical dilemmas facing ageing societies It confronts and integrates approaches that have been relatively isolated from each other and interrelates two major streams of thought within critical gerontology analyses of structural issues in the context of political economy and humanistic perspectives on issues of existential meaning The chapters from a wide range of contributors focus on major issues in ageing such as autonomy agency frailty lifestyle social isolation dementia and professional challenges in social work and participatory research This volume should be valuable reading for scholars and graduate students in gerontology and humanistic studies as well as for policy makers and practitioners working in the field of ageing

The Storied Self Bruce A. Stevens, 2018-10-15 We are multistoried each story contributing to who we are the storied self A number of undeveloped stories are identified in this book This includes the hidden story before language Others include the lazy story the trauma story the messy story the body story the problem story and the dark story The God story brings the spiritual realm into focus The challenge in spiritual care is to help people find an integrative deep story which can be re authored with new and exciting possibilities This book draws on the insights of narrative gerontology for a natural engaging and more comprehensive spiritual care of the aged one that results in psychological and spiritual growth This is a unique idea which will challenge the way we think about pastoral care

The Babushka

Phenomenon Anna Shadrina, 2025-10-01 The Babushka Phenomenon examines the social production of ageing in post Soviet Russia highlighting the role of grandmothers as primary caregivers due to men s traditional estrangement from family life This expectation places grandmothers or babushkas in a position where they prioritise childcare and housework over their careers making them unpaid family carers reliant on the state and their children Anna Shadrina situates older Russian women s experiences within the post Soviet redefinition of the nation analysing their portrayal in popular media and biographical narratives of women aged 60 and over in Russia and the UK It addresses class and racial disparities noting how some women outsource family duties to less qualified women and emphasises age as a significant but overlooked axis of social inequality From a feminist perspective the book explores citizenship as both a status and a practice of inclusion and exclusion By focusing on older women s rights to participate in private and public spheres it discusses the new social inequalities that emerged after the USSR s collapse Despite prioritising others interests older Russian women actively engage in economic citizenship though their struggles for recognition are often excluded from formal economy and politics
