Con Thien The Hill Of Angels:

Con Thien James P. Coan, 2004-08-10 Con Thien is a memoir history of a much beleaguered Marine outpost of the DMZ. Throughout much of 1967, a remote United States Marine firebase only two miles from the demilitarized zone (DMZ) captured the attention of the world's media. That artillery-scarred outpost was the linchpin of the so-called McNamara Line, intended to deter incursions into South Vietnam by the North Vietnamese Army. As such, the fighting along this territory was particularly intense and bloody, and the body count rose daily. Con Thien combines James P. Coan's personal experiences with information taken from archives, interviews with battle participants, and official documents to construct a powerful story of the daily life and combat on the red clay bullseye known as The Hill of Angels. As a tank platoon leader in Alpha Company, 3d Tank Battalion, 3d Marine Division, Coan was stationed at Con Thien for eight months during his 1967-68 service in Vietnam and witnessed much of the carnage. Con Thien was heavily bombarded by enemy artillery with impunity because it was located in politically sensitive territory, and the U.S. government would not permit direct armed response from Marine tanks. Coan, like many other soldiers, began to feel as though the government was as much the enemy as the NVA, yet he continued to fight for his country with all that he had. In his riveting memoir, Coan depicts the hardships of life in the DMZ and the ineffectiveness of much of the U.S. military effort in Vietnam.

A Hellish Place of Angels Daryl Eigen, 2019-10-16 In this War memoir, Eigen gives voice to his fellow veteran's experiences of the Vietnam War that culminated in September of 1967 in the brutal battle of the Siege of Con Thien. This defining engagement marked the beginning of the TET offensive and the battle of Khe Sanh. He fought with the famous Marine Infantry Battalions 326 and 29 of the Third Division. Through letters written home, blended with published attributed media, and real war experiences, A Hellish Place of Angels provides an in-depth and riveting insight into war and documents a spiritual journey that took a 13-month tour of combat experience and more than a half-century of living to begin to understand.

Hill of Angels Joseph C. Long, 2016 Hill of Angels Joseph C. Long, 2017-04-03 This monograph examines U.S. Marine and North Vietnamese Army (NVA) actions throughout much of the northern half of a region that became known as Leatherneck Square, an area located just below the demilitarized zone or DMZ. The campaign consisted of numerous subordinate operations and battles. The author, retired US Marine Corps colonel Joseph Long, participated in many of these while still a young enlisted Marine.

Time in the Barrel James P. Coan, 2018-11-13 A Marine's highly personal memoir reliving the hellish days of a pivotal conflict of the Vietnam War. Con Thien, located only two miles from the demilitarized zone dividing North and South Vietnam, was a United States Marine Corps firebase that was the scene of fierce combat for months on end during 1967. Staving off attacks and ambushes while suffering from ineffectual leadership from Washington, as well as media onslaughts, courageous American Marines protected this crucial piece of land at all costs. They would hold Con Thien, but many paid the ultimate price. By the end of the war, more than 1,400 Marines had died, and more than 9,000 sustained injuries defending the Hill of Angels. For eight months, James P. Coan's five-tank platoon was assigned to Con Thien while attached to various Marine infantry battalions A novice second lieutenant at the time the author kept a diary recording the thoughts fears and frustrations that accompanied his life on The Hill Time in the Barrel A Marine s Account of the Battle for Con Thien offers an authentic firsthand account of the daily nightmare that was Con Thien An enticing and fascinating read featuring authentic depictions of combat it allows readers to fully grasp the enormity of the fierce struggle for Con Thien The defenders of Con Thien were bombarded with hundreds of rounds of incoming rockets mortars and artillery that pounded the beleaguered outpost daily Monsoon downpours turned the red laterite clay soil into a morass of oozing mud flooded bunkers and trenches and made Con Thien a living hell Being at Con Thien came to be ruefully referred to by the Marines stationed there as time in the barrel because they were targets as easy as fish in a barrel More than a retelling of military movements Coan s engrossing narratives focus on the sheer sacrifice and misery of one Marine s experience in Vietnam Through his eyes we experience the abysmal conditions the Marines endured from monsoon rainstorms to the constant threat of impending attack Climatic moments in history are captured through the rare personal perspective of one particularly astute and observant participant

Hill of Angels U.S. Marines and the Battle for Con Thien 1967 to 1968 Joseph C. Long, 2017-03-08 This monograph examines U S Marine and North Vietnamese Army NVA actions throughout much of the northern half of a region that became known as Leatherneck Square an area bounded by Con Thien and Gio Linh to the north just below the demilitarized zone DMZ and Cam Lo and Dong Ha to the south The Battle of Con Thien also included activities within the DMZ north and west of Con Thien as far as the Ben Hai River More than a dozen Marine operations were involved in varying degrees with the Battle of Con Thien This account deals with the battle s most significant and costly operations Operation Hickory 18-28 May 1967 Operation Buffalo 2-14 July 1967 Operation Kingfisher 16 July-31 October 1967 and Operation Kentucky 1 November 1967-28 February 1968 The Battle for Con Thien was therefore not a single event Rather it was an amalgamation of unit actions that can arguably be said to have lasted for years the result of the strategies and attitudes of senior leadership generally far removed from the battlefield This study focuses first on the planning and building of the controversial obstacle system of which Con Thien was an anchor It then examines the period of the battle s most intense combat beginning in May 1967 when Marines first occupied the hill and continuing until the early part of the following year

Eye of the Tiger John Edmund Delezen, 2015-09-01 We live together under the thick canopy each searching for the other the same leeches and mosquitoes that feed on our blood feed on his blood John Edmund Delezen felt a kinship with the people he was instructed to kill in Vietnam they were all at the mercy of the land His memoir begins when he enlisted in the Marine Corps and was sent to Vietnam in March of 1967 He volunteered for the Third Force Recon Company whose job it was to locate and infiltrate enemy lines undetected and map their locations and learn details of their status The duty was often painful both physically and mentally He was stricken with malaria in November of 1967

wounded by a grenade in February of 1968 and hit by a bullet later that summer He remained in Vietnam until December 1968 Delezen writes of Vietnam as a man humbled by a mysterious country and horrified by acts of brutality The land was his enemy as much as the Vietnamese soldiers He vividly describes the three canopy jungle with birds and monkeys overhead that could be heard but not seen venomous snakes hiding in trees and relentless bugs that fed on men He recalls stumbling onto a pit of rotting Vietnamese bodies left behind by American forces and days when fierce hunger made a bag of plasma seem like an enticing meal He writes of his fallen comrades and the images of war that still pervade his dreams This book contains many photographs of American Marines and Vietnam as well as three maps Marine Corps Tanks and Ontos in Vietnam LtCol Ray Stewart USMC,2019-10-03 Book Two the second of a three book series continues from 1966 in Book One to cover the action of Marine Corps Tankers and Ontos crewmen fighting the locally grown Viet Cong the better armed trained organized and equipped Viet Cong Main Forces and the North Vietnamese Army Regulars from 1967 thru 1968 in I Corps South Vietnam As in Book One and to continue in Book Three it features hundreds of personal stories on the spot in real time interviews of Marines just returning from their fight all which is framed within the official unit command chronologies and after action reports including documented lessons learned The maps personal pictures organizational charts and the citing of each Marine who gave his life are also linked to the Vietnam Wall and to the Foundation s web site with volumes of additional information about the Marines who left their sweat and blood in Vietnam battling their communist enemy A Very Good Man Jim Trevis,2011-12-19 If your dying son asked you to become a very good man and you weren t what would you do John Tatum s answer is to attempt suicide This makes no sense to psychiatrist Rose Sacare After all as a vice president for Hamilton Pharmaceuticals Tatum had just launched Multi Zan a drug that puts multiple sclerosis into remission Dr Sacare personally champions Tatum s recovery until his secret acts of bravery and generosity earn him the media s title of the Hero of the Homeless As Tatum heals and the magnitude of his good deeds mounts his feelings for Rose grow as well and he once again believes that happiness is within reach Why then will he not reveal his true identity to his growing crowd of admirers And why do his coworkers at Hamilton fear for his complete recovery A story of loss and redemption A Very Good Man confronts the moral issues of our times and challenges the reader to think about what they would do to make the world a better place if given a second chance
