Concentrationary Memories Totalitarian Resistance And Cultural Memories:

Cultural Memories of Nonviolent Struggles A. Reading, T. Katriel, 2015-06-09 If societies have only memories of war of cruelty of violence then why are we called humankind This book marks a new trajectory in Memory Studies by examining cultural memories of nonviolent struggles from ten countries The book reminds us of the enduring cultural scripts for human agency solidarity resilience and human kindness

Concentrationary Memories Griselda Pollock, Max Silverman, 2015-08-25 Concentrationary Memories has as its premise the idea at the heart of Alain Resnais's film Night and Fog 1955 that the concentrationary plague unleashed on the world by the Nazis in the 1930s and 1940s is not simply confined to one place and one time but is now a permanent presence shadowing modern life It further suggests that memory and indeed art in general must be invoked to show this haunting of the present by this menacing past so that we can read for the signs of terror and counter its deformation of the human Through working with political and cultural theory on readings of film art photographic and literary practices Concentrationary Memories analyses different cultural responses to concentrationary terror in different sites in the post war period ranging from Auschwitz to Argentina These readings show how those involved in the cultural production of memories of the horror of totalitarianism sought to find forms languages and image systems which could make sense of and resist the post war condition in which as Hannah Arendt famously stated everything is possible and human beings as human beings become superfluous Authors include Nicholas Chare Isabelle de le Court Thomas Elsaesser Benjamin Hannavy Cousen Matthew John Claire Launchbury Sylvie Lindeperg Laura Malosetti Costa Griselda Pollock Max Silverman Glenn Sujo Annette Wieviorka and John Wolfe Ackerman

Concentrationary Memories Griselda Pollock, Max Silverman, 2015-08-25 In 1945 French political prisoners returning from the concentration camps of Germany coined the phrase the concentrationary universe to describe the camps as a terrible political experiment in the destruction of the human This book shows how the unacknowledged legacy of a totalitarian mentality has seeped into the deepest recesses of everyday popular culture It asks if the concentrationary now infests our cultural imaginary normalizing what was once considered horrific and exceptional by transforming into entertainment violations of human life

Concentrationary Art Griselda Pollock, Max Silverman, 2019-04-22 Largely forgotten over the years the seminal work of French poet novelist and camp survivor Jean Cayrol has experienced a revival in the French speaking world since his death in 2005 His concept of a concentrationary art the need for an urgent and constant aesthetic resistance to the continuing effects of the concentrationary universe proved to be a major influence for Hannah Arendt and other writers and theorists across a number of disciplines Concentrationary Art presents the first translation into English of Jean Cayrol's key essays on the subject as well as the first book length study of how we might situate and elaborate his concept of a Lazarean aesthetic in cultural theory literature cinema music and contemporary art

Racial Nationalisms Sivamohan Valluvan, Virinder S. Kalra, 2020-12-17 This book addresses the centrality of race and racism in consolidating the nationalisms currently prominent in Brexit Britain Particular attention is given to the issues of refugees borders and bordering and the wider forms of nativist and anti Muslim sentiments that anchor today s increasingly populist forms of nationalist politics It is argued that the forms of scapegoating and alarmism integral to the revival of nationalism in British politics are fundamentally tied to racialised processes Equally however it is argued that such a political climate is not simply discursive but also yields acute forms of governance wherein an increasingly violent attention is given by the state to the border The chapters in the book do however also attempt to think through the possibilities of a constructive response to this moment Emphasis is given here to the everyday cultural textures that might help shape a popular opposition to racial nationalism Similarly the book attempts to unpack the appeal of today s distinctive populism in ways that might be more responsive to anti racist and anti nationalist sentiments Racial Nationalisms will be of interest to academics and researchers studying postcolonialism nationalism ethnic and racial studies and to advanced students of sociology political science and public policy This book was originally published as a special issue of the journal Ethnic and Racial Studies France's Memorial Landscape Sophie Fuggle,2023-09-15

During August 1942 several women jumped to their deaths from a second story window at the tile factory in the small town of Milles near Aix en Provence Between 1939 and 1942 the factory assumed various roles as internment camp transit camp and ultimately deportation camp This book is about the view from the suicide window as it is presented within the Camp des Milles memorial museum which opened in 2012 It explores how this view might help us to understand and imagine the world of internment and deportation camps operating in France during the Second World War and their memorial today The book uses the views framed by the window to think critically about the museography of the memorial within the wider context of France s relatively late acknowledgment of its role in the persecution of the Jews during the Second World War

Testimonies of Resistance Nicholas Chare,Dominic Williams,2019-09-01 The Sonderkommando the special squad of enslaved Jewish laborers who were forced to work in the gas chambers and crematoria of Auschwitz Birkenau comprise one of the most fascinating and troubling topics within Holocaust history As eyewitnesses to and unwilling abettors of the murder of their fellow Jews they are the object of fierce condemnation even today Yet it was a group of these seemingly compromised men who carried out the revolt of October 7 1944 one of the most celebrated acts of Holocaust resistance This interdisciplinary collection assembles careful investigations into how the Sonderkommando have been represented by themselves and by others both during and after the Holocaust Concentrationary Imaginaries Griselda Pollock,Max Silverman,2015-11-30 In 1945 French political prisoners returning from the concentration camps of Germany coined the phrase the concentrationary universe to describe the camps as a terrible political experiment in the destruction of the human This book shows how the unacknowledged legacy of a totalitarian mentality has seeped into the deepest recesses of everyday popular culture It asks if the concentrationary now infests our cultural imaginary normalizing what was once considered horrific and exceptional by transforming into entertainment violations of human life Drawing on the political philosophy of

Hannah Arendt and the analyses of violence by Agamben Virilio Lacoue Labarthe and Nancy it also offers close readings of films by Cavani and Haneke that identify and critically expose such an imaginary and hence contest its lingering force

Post-Traumatic Art in the City Isabelle de le Court, 2020-11-26 Post Traumatic Art in the City comprises an original analysis of the nexus of war art and urban society in two specific contexts late 20th century Beirut and Sarajevo With an emphasis on conceptions of the post traumatic De le Court explores how cities and art are mutually formative in war and post war contexts providing unique insight into the politically and psychologically driven art scenes from within the works of art themselves Grounded in close analyses and new research the book makes an important contribution to the fields of art history and trauma studies

Picturing Peace Tom Allbeson, Pippa Oldfield, Jolyon Mitchell, 2024-12-26 How can photographers curators and editors convey narratives of peace and not just stories of war Providing interdisciplinary and international perspectives on timely debates Picturing Peace explores humanitarianism and visual culture community collaboration collective memory and imagined futures for creating and sustaining of civil societies How things look and are perceived are not superficial issues when it comes to war and conflict photography is vitally relevant not only to documenting violence but also to rebuilding peaceful societies The volume examines the intersecting issues of visual culture and peacebuilding including the genealogies of photography and conflict decolonisation and the gaze the significance of archival material as well as recent peacebuilding initiatives Exploring multiple forms of peace photography the volume offers a range of voices from preeminent international scholars as well as interviews with practicing photographers who have experience of working with post conflict communities As such the book provides a timely investigation into the politics of representation questioning how photographers might help foster social relationships transform conflicts and reconcile communities in the image oriented cultures
