Concertino Da Camera:

Concertino Da Camera for Alto Saxophone and 11 Instruments Jacques Ibert, Alexander Glazunov, Heitor Villa-Lobos, 1972 An Analysis of Jacques Ibert's Concertino Da Camera for Alto Saxophone and Eleven Instruments James Garland Riggs, 1972 An Historical Investigation of and Performance Guide for Jacques Ibert's Concertino Da Camera William Stuart Graves, 2005 Divertissement; Concertino Da Camera for Alto Saxophone and 11 Instruments Jacques Ibert, 1991 Concertino da camera Jacques Ibert, 1983 Concertino da camera Jacques Ibert, Jean-Marie Londeix, 2002 The Music of Peggy Glanville-Hicks Victoria Rogers, 2017-07-05 Peggy Glanville Hicks 1912 1990 is an Australian composer whose full significance has only recently been appreciated Born in Melbourne Australia she transcended the gendered expectations of her upbringing and went on to become a fine composer and a highly influential figure in the vibrant musical life of New York after the Second World War Following early composition studies with Fritz Hart in Melbourne Glanville Hicks moved to London where she studied with Ralph Vaughan Williams then to Paris where she was taught by the great pedagogue Nadia Boulanger Her migration to the USA in 1941 shaped the musical direction of her late works After a brief neoclassical phase she joined the small group of American composers who were using non Western musics as their inspirational well spring including Colin McPhee Alan Hovhaness Lou Harrison and Paul Bowles During this period she also forged an illustrious career as a music journalist and arts administrator working tirelessly to promote new music and the careers of young composers In the late 1950s she retreated to Greece to write the big works most notably the operas which lie at the heart of her creative output Her compositional career ended prematurely and tragically in 1967 following surgery the previous year for a life threatening brain tumour Against all medical expectations she went on to live for a further 24 years returning to Australia in 1975 amidst a dawning recognition that one of the country's most significant composers had returned Glanville Hicks's career as a composer is impressive by any measure She produced over 70 finely crafted works including operas ballets concertos instrumental chamber pieces songs and choral works The story of her life has been told in the biographies This book traces the development of her musical language from the English pastoral style of the early works through the neoclassicism of the middle period to the melody rhythm concept of the late works The Scoring of Baroque Concertos C. R. F. Maunder, 2004 Evidence indicates that the concertos of Vivaldi Bach Haydn etc were performed as chamber music not the full orchestral works commonly assumed The concertos of Vivaldi Bach Handel and their contemporaries are some of the most popular and the most frequently performed pieces of classical music and the assumption has always been they were full orchestral works This book takes issue with this orthodox opinion to argue quite the reverse that contemporaries regarded the concerto as chamber music The author surveys the evidence from surviving printed and manuscript performance material from concerts throughout Europe between 1685 and 1750 the heyday of the concerto demonstrating that concertos were nearly always played one to a part at that time He makes a particularly close study of the scoring of the bass line discussing the question of what instruments were most appropriate and what was used when The late Dr RICHARD MAUNDER was Fellow of Christ s College Cambridge The Concerto Abraham Veinus,1964-01-01 The first thorough English language exploration of the concerto as a musical form this is an oft quoted authoritative survey Examining the social economic and personal factors that influenced the concerto s growth the work also summarizes the contributions of theorists composers and musicians and defines the genre s terms and the changing nature
