Gerhard Cardinal Müller, 2023-03-17 From her very beginning the Church has been entrusted with the universal commission to make disciples of all nations Matt 28 19 offering to the entire world the new life and communion with God that is made available in Christ through Baptism and the Christian confession of faith This charge requires of the Church and her members both an orientation to God and a responsibility for the world neither can be neglected as they form an indissoluble relational unity that flows from the person of Christ the one mediator between God and men 1 Tim 2 5 Yet in the current age the Church appears forced to choose between God and the world between the identity of the faith and its relevance for modern humanity between fidelity to Revelation and innovation In True and False Reform Gerhard Cardinal Müller seeks to provide an aid for navigating the tensions confusions and divisions of this modern crisis directing our attention to the Church's essence characteristics life and mission not as one religion among others but as the site of Christ's saving presence with humanity It is Christ who is the Church's life and foundation and Christ too who is the source and end of that transformation according to his likeness to which all are called Müller shows that this universal call to renewal in Christ in faith life and prayer is the basis of the Church's catholicity the principal of all true reform and the impetus for Catholics journeying together with Christians from other churches and ecclesial communities toward perfect unity in Christ Challenging

Jesus and the Scriptures Tobias Hägerland, 2016-02-11 The four Gospels unanimously present Jesus as someone who quoted from commented on and engaged with the Scriptures of Israel Whether this portrayal goes back to the historical Jesus has been a hotly debated issue among scholars In this book eleven expert researchers from four different continents tackle the question anew This is done through detailed study of specific themes and passages from the Scriptures which Jesus according to the Gospels quoted or alluded to Among the various topics investigated are Jesus use of Genesis 2 to bolster his teaching on divorce his reference to the Queen of Sheba story in 1 Kings the significance of the Book of Zechariah for Jesus self understanding and his enigmatic quotation of Psalm 22 on the cross These and other contributions result in a common understanding of Jesus use of the Scriptures Not only did Jesus engage with the Scriptures according to these scholars but his mode of engagement has to be placed within the early Jewish interpretative framework within which he lived

Rediscovering John Lesław Daniel Chrupcała, 2014-05-29T00:00:00+02:00 The idea of dedicating a Festschrift to honor Professor Fr d ric Manns on the happy occasion of his 70th birthday came to mind in the autumn of 2011 and work on this project had been continuing ever since Felicitously achieving this goal the Faculty of Biblical Sciences and Archaeology Studium Biblicum Franciscanum and the Franciscan Custody of the Holy Land present this volume to Father Manns with gratitude for his profound scholarship and a lifetime service in the Holy Land Perusing through Father Manns writings it is easy to see a prominent and distinctive place devoted to the Gospel of John It seemed therefore suitable to focus on this subject in the Festschrift honoring him the title Rediscovering John relates to Manns significant contribution towards the better understanding of the Fourth Gospel The volume comprises 21 studies authored by renowned scholars from various parts of the world from different institutions and denominations While the first half of the studies examines general issues history of interpretation textual transmission intertextuality theological themes archaeology the second half treats literary narrative and exegetical approaches to particular texts of the Fourth Gospel We augur that this rich collection will help to stimulate further discussion and reflection on the Gospel of John as well as constitute an incentive to an already distinguished scholar to continue writing challenging and thought provoking essays and books from the Foreword by the Editor Das Johannesevangelium Klaus Wengst, 2019-02-06 One of the reviewers of this commentary called it a commentary you can read This new edition has tried to make it even more readable Following two previous editions it has now not only been revised stylistically but also shortened in order to publish it in a single volume The commentary's primary goal still applies of course renewal of the relationship between Christians and Jews combined with a non polemical sympathetic and theologically deep rooted perception of the Jewish people This is in no sense an ideological narrowing but rather is required by the text The Gospel according to St John like the other New Testament scriptures as well is based on the Jewish Bible and arose in a Jewish context To speak of Christianity in the first century is simply anachronistic In interpreting polemical statements made in an internal Jewish dispute the commentary takes into account not only the situation in which they arose but also the fact that our own situation today is substantially different from that This prohibits a responsible interpretation from simply repeating statements that occur in such a context More recent publications are also taken into account in the new edition and fresh debate is sought particularly on passages in which contradictory interpretative approaches diverge The Johannine Footwashing as the Sign of Perfect Love Bincy Mathew, 2018-11-23 Back cover Was the footwashing in Jn 13 1 20 simply an act of service or humility Bincy Mathew provides a critical and thorough exegetical analysis of the footwashing and shows that it is the symbolic prefiguration of Jesus' death on the cross enacted during the last supper to manifest his perfect love for his own
