Die Kapuzinergruft German Joseph Roth:

Joseph Roth's March Into History Katharine Tonkin, 2008 Introduction Identity and ideology The early novels Das Spinnennetz Hotel Savoy Die Rebellion Radetzky marsch as historical novel Die Kapuzinergruft and the confrontation with history Conclusion Selected works by Joseph Roth Works cited Index Understanding Joseph Roth Sidney Rosenfeld, 2020-06-16 Unravels an internationally esteemed author's quest for a homeland A writer described as a Jew in search of a fatherland and a wanderer in flight toward a tragic end the Austrian writer Joseph Roth 1894 1939 spent his life in pursuit of a national and cultural identity and his final years writing in fervent opposition to the Third Reich In this introduction to Roth's novels which include Job and The Radetzky March Sidney Rosenfeld demonstrates how the experience of homelessness not only shaped Roth's life but also decisively defined his body of work Rosenfeld suggests that more than any other component of Roth's varied fiction his skillful portrayals of uprootedness and the search for home explain his international appeal which has grown in recent decades with the translation of his works into English Rosenfeld examines Roth's obsession with the question of belonging tracing it to his boyhood in the Slavic Jewish Austrian Crown land of Galicia Illustrating how Roth's quest determined his most typical themes and gave rise to the Jewish Slavic melancholy that permeates his narratives Rosenfeld includes readings of the early novels Through this fiction Roth quickly established his reputation as a literary chronicler of both the final years of the Habsburg monarchy and the lost world of East European Jewry Rosenfeld describes Roth's flight from Berlin upon Hitler's ascent to power in January 1933 and his precarious existence as an exile While copies of Roth's works went up in flames in Nazi book burnings the novelist moved from one European city to another living in hotels and writing at caf tables From the time of his exile until his death in Paris just months before the outbreak of the Second World War Roth produced six novels as well as shorter works of fiction and a steady flow of journalism denouncing the Third Reich Rosenfeld's critical readings of the novels written during Roth's exile connect them with the novelist's prescient estimate of Hitler's intentions and his own longing for a sovereign Austria The Grace of Misery. Joseph Roth and the Politics of Exile, 1919-1939 Ilse Josepha Lazaroms, 2012-10-19 Winner of the 2015 Victor Adler State Prize Förderpreis from the Austrian Ministry of Science and Education The Grace of Misery Joseph Roth and the Politics of Exile 1919 1939 confronts the life and intellectual heritage of the Galician Jewish exiled journalist and writer Joseph Roth 1894 1939 Through the quandaries that occupied his mature writings nostalgia suffering European culture Judaism exile self narration the book analyses the greater Central European literary culture of the interwar European years through the lens of modern displacement and Jewish identity Moving between his journalism novels and correspondence Lazaroms follows Roth's life as it rapidly disintegrated alongside radicalized politics exile the rise of Nazism and Europe's descent into another world war Despite these tragedies which forced him into homelessness Roth confronted his predicament with an ever growing political intensity The Grace of Misery is an intellectual portrait of a profoundly modern writer whose works have gained a renewed readership in the last decade Exile John M. Spalek, Robert F. Bell, 2020-05-01 This work is a collection of twenty four fundamental essays on the many sided topic of German exile literature during and after Hitler s Third Reich Exile literature which emerged in the 1980s as a special field of critical investigation within German Studies embraced the diverse works of writers who were scattered from Hollywood to Moscow but were related by the common bond of exile from Germany Leading American and European specialists in the field are contributors to the volume which discusses the work of Thomas Mann Bertolt Brecht Hermann Broch and Karl Wolfskehl among others Unsettling Difference Adi Nester, 2025-01-15 Unsettling Difference challenges the major minor pattern that has framed discussions of German Jewish difference focusing on instances that fall outside traditional understandings of minority culture Exploring expressions of Jewish identity and difference in biblical themed musical dramas and their literary sources Adi Nester argues that the issue of Jewish difference should be treated as an aesthetic question in the first half of the twentieth century even amid the rise of pseudoscientific theories about race and blood Drawing on the fraught parallel histories of opera and the modern reception of the Hebrew Bible in Germany both significant in debates at the time about the nature of Jewish separateness Unsettling Difference shows how this discourse troubles concepts of Jewish marginality and non Jewish German dominance Through innovative readings of key works in this tradition Rudolf Borchardt s poem Das Buch Joram Paul Ben Haim s oratorio Joram Arnold Schoenberg s opera Moses und Aron Joseph Roth s novel Hiob and Eric Zeisl s opera Hiob Nester shows how these biblical adaptations foreground alternative notions of difference that rely on confusion ambiguity radical heterogeneity excess and repetition The Literary Politics of Mitteleuropa Yvonne Zivkovic, 2021 Shows how postwar writers in Austria and Yugoslavia re imagined the concept of Mitteleuropa Central Europe as a cultural space between nostalgia and totalitarianism The German term Mitteleuropa or Central Europe was never just a geographical concept it connoted extending German influence to the east In the 1980s the eastern European dissident writers Gy rgy Konr d Czes aw Mi osz and Milan Kundera revived the concept to counter a perceived Cold War memory vacuum aligning themselves with the multiethnic and multilingual legacy of the Habsburg Empire Their observations gave rise to a protracted public debate that posited literature against politics This debate was both anticipated and expanded upon in postwar literary works by Ingeborg Bachmann Peter Handke and Christoph Ransmayr in Austria and Danilo Kis Aleksandar Tisma and Dubravka Ugresi in the former Yugoslavia all of whom questioned notions of geographic identity and national allegiance by imagining Mitteleuropa as a cultural space between nostalgia and totalitarianism Yvonne Zivkovic draws on space and memory studies to show how Mitteleuropa emerged as an alternate memory discourse that reveals deep ties between the Second Austrian Republic and the Socialist Federal Republic of Yugoslavia The writers discussed address the major themes of the 1980s debate traumatic memory geographic displacement and transnationalism but also share a literary aesthetics that privileges the intersections of prose fiction and the essay the literary fragment and intertextuality Zivkovic s book shows the persistence of Mitteleuropa as a literary network and as a cultural collective that examines civic values against public tendencies of memory manipulation uropa as a cultural space between nostalgia and totalitarianism Yvonne Zivkovic draws on space and memory studies to show how Mitteleuropa emerged as an alternate memory discourse that reveals deep ties between the Second Austrian Republic and the Socialist Federal Republic of Yugoslavia The writers discussed address the major themes of the 1980s debate traumatic memory geographic displacement and transnationalism but also share a literary aesthetics that privileges the intersections of prose fiction and the essay the literary fragment and intertextuality Zivkovic s book shows the persistence of Mitteleuropa as a literary network and as a cultural collective that examines civic values against public tendencies of memory manipulation uropa as a cultural space between nostalgia and totalitarianism Yvonne Zivkovic draws on space and memory studies to show how Mitteleuropa emerged as an alternate memory discourse that reveals deep ties between the Second Austrian Republic and the Socialist Federal Republic of Yugoslavia The writers discussed address the major themes of the 1980s debate traumatic memory geographic displacement and transnationalism but also share a literary aesthetics that privileges the intersections of prose fiction and the essay the literary fragment and intertextuality Zivkovic s book shows the persistence of Mitteleuropa as a literary network and as a cultural collective that examines civic values against public tendencies of memory manipulation

Narratives of the European Border R. Robinson, 2007-10-23 Richard Robinson examines the representation of shifting European borders in twentieth century narrative drawing together an unusual grouping of texts from different national canons and comparing the various ways that fictional settings transmute European placelessness into narrative

The Politics of Contested Narratives Ilse Lazaroms, Emily Gioielli, 2016-03-17 The twentieth century in Europe was characterized by great moments of rupture such as two world wars ideological conflict and political polarization In these processes as well as in the historical writing that followed in its wake the individual as an historical entity often appeared crushed In line with contemporary theories about the precariousness of historical writing and the self this volume seeks to understand the important developments in modern Europe from the perspective of the single sometimes isolated but always original viewpoint of individuals inhabiting the space at the other side of the traditional grand narratives Including theoretical chapters as well as detailed case studies this volume takes a biographical approach to dystopian events the Holocaust Fascism Communism and collectivization by starting with the voices of unknown historical actors and relating their experiences to larger processes in modern European history such as the emergence of the national collective memory and state formation as well as changes in the understanding of modern identities and the re formulation of the self This book was originally published as a special issue of the European Review of History

The Habsburg Legacy Ritchie Robertson,Edward Timms,1994 With the collapse of Communism in Eastern Europe and the break up of the Soviet Union nationalism and its effects are once more at the forefront of attention However to understand more fully what is happening now it is valuable to look back into the past and examine the construction and collapse of the multi national Habsburg Empire After examining how the Holy Roman Empire became the Austrian Empire at the beginning of the nineteenth century this collection of essays charts the subsequent growth of distinctive regional identities in Hungary Galicia Trieste and Croatia before looking at the official attempts to define ethnic identity and what harm resulted from their good intentions Differing constructions of Austrian identity among Jewish novelists women writers and art historians besides the literary works of Hofmannsthal and Musil are then analysed as are the attempts to devise a new Austrian identity under the semi fascist rule of the 1930s and the early years of the post war Second Republic Concluding with a general analysis contrasting the gradual integration of nations in present day western Europe with the dissolution of multi national states in the east Austrian Studies 5 is both a challenging reappraisal of a fallen Empire and a timely reflection of an on going question Book Jacket

The Quest for Redemption Rares G. Piloiu,2018-09-15 The Quest for Redemption Central European Jewish Thought in Joseph Roth s Works by Rares Piloiu fills an important gap in Roth scholarship placing Roth s major works of fiction for the first time in the context of a generational interest in religious redemption among the Jewish intellectuals of Central Europe In it Piloiu argues that Roth s challenging often contradictory and ambivalent literary output is the result of an attempt to recast moral political and historical realities of an empirically observable world in a new religiously transfigured reality through the medium of literature This diegetic recasting of phenomenological encounters with the real is an expression of Roth s belief that since the self and the world are in a continuing state of crisis issuing from their separation in modernity a restoration of their unity is necessary to redeem the historical existence of individuals and communities alike Piloiu notes however that Roth s enterprise in this is not unique to his work but rather is shared by an entire generation of Central European Jewish intellectuals This generation disillusioned by modernity s excessive secularism rationalism and nationalism sought a radical solution in the revival of mystical religious traditions above all in the Judaic idea of messianic redemption Their use of the Chasidic notion of redemption was highly original in that it stripped the notion of its original theological meaning and applied it to the secular experience of reality As a result Roth's quest for redemption is a quest for a salvation of the individual not outside but within history
