Weird Westerns Kerry Fine, Michael Kyle Johnson, Rebecca M. Lush, Sara L. Spurgeon, 2020-08 2021 Top Ten Finalist for the Locus Awards in Nonfiction Joshua Smith's chapter Uncle Tom's Cabin Showdown won the 2021 Don D Walker Prize from the Western Literature Association Weird Westerns is an exploration of the hybrid western genre an increasingly popular and visible form that mixes western themes iconography settings and conventions with elements drawn from other genres such as science fiction horror and fantasy Despite frequent declarations of the western's death the genre is now defined in part by its zombie like ability to survive in American popular culture in weird reanimated and reassembled forms The essays in Weird Westerns analyze a wide range of texts including those by Native American authors Stephen Graham Jones Blackfeet and William Sanders Cherokee the cult television series Firefly and The Walking Dead the mainstream feature films Suicide Squad and Django Unchained the avant garde and bizarre fiction of Joe R Lansdale the tabletop roleplaying game Deadlands The Weird West and the comic book series Wynonna Earp The essays explore how these weird westerns challenge conventional representations by destabilizing or subverting the centrality of the heterosexual white male hero but also often surprisingly reinforce existing paradigms in their inability to imagine an existence outside of colonial frameworks We Who Work the West Kiara

Kharpertian,2020-06-01 We Who Work the West examines literary representations of class labor and space in the American West from 1885 to 2012 Moving from Mar a Amparo Ruiz de Burton s representations of dispossessed Californio ranchers in the mid nineteenth century to the urban grid of early twentieth century San Francisco in Frank Norris s McTeague to working and unemployed cowboys in the contemporary novels of Cormac McCarthy and Larry McMurtry Kiara Kharpertian provides a panoramic look at literary renderings of both individual labor physical tangible and often threatened handwork and the epochal transformations of central institutions of a modernizing West the farm the ranchero the mine the rodeo and the Native American reservation The West that emerges here is both dynamic and diverse its on the ground organization of work social class individual mobility and collective belonging constantly mutating in direct response to historical change and the demands of the natural environment The literary West thus becomes more than a locus of mythic nostalgia or consumer fantasy about the American past It becomes a place where the real work of making that West as well as the suffering and loss it often entailed is reimagined Teaching Western American Literature Brady Harrison,Randi Lynn Tanglen,2020-06-01 In this volume experienced and new college and university level teachers will find practical adaptable strategies for designing or updating courses in western American literature and western studies Teaching Western American Literature features the latest developments in western literary research and cultural studies as well as pedagogical best practices in course development Contributors provide practical models and suggestions for courses and assignments while presenting concrete strategies for teaching works both inside and outside the canon In addition Brady Harrison and Randi Lynn Tanglen have assembled insights from pioneering western studies instructors with workable strategies and practical advice for translating this often complex material for classrooms from freshman writing courses to graduate seminars Teaching Western American Literature reflects the cutting edge of western American literary study featuring diverse approaches allied with women s gender queer environmental disability and Indigenous studies and providing instructors with entr e into classrooms of leading scholars in the field The Comic Book Western Christopher Conway,Antoinette Sol,2022-06 The Comic Book

Western explores how the myth of the American West played out in popular comics from around the world In the Mean Time Erin Murrah-Mandril,2020-04-01 The 1848 Treaty of Guadalupe Hidalgo which transferred more than a third of Mexico

s territory to the United States deferred full U S citizenship for Mexican Americans but promised in the mean time to protect their property and liberty Erin Murrah Mandril demonstrates that the U S government deployed a colonization of time in the Southwest to insure political and economic underdevelopment in the region and to justify excluding Mexican Americans from narratives of U S progress In In the Mean Time Murrah Mandril contends that Mexican American authors challenged modern conceptions of empty homogenous linear and progressive time to contest U S colonization Taking a cue from Latina o and borderlands spatial theories Murrah Mandril argues that time like space is a socially constructed ideologically charged medium of power in the Southwest In the Mean Time draws on literature autobiography political documents and historical narratives composed between 1870 and 1940 to examine the way U S colonization altered time in the borderlands Rather than reinforce the colonial time structure early Mexican American authors exploited the internal contradictions of Manifest Destiny and U S progress to resist domination and situate themselves within the shifting political economic and historical present Read as decolonial narratives the Mexican American cultural productions examined in this book also offer a new way of understanding Latina o literary history The Places of Modernity in Early Mexican American Literature, 1848-1948 José F. Aranda, 2022-02 Jos F Aranda Jr demonstrates how the burdens of modernity become the dominant discursive logic for understanding why people of Mexican descent nonetheless wrote and invested in print culture without any guarantee of its social cultural or political efficacy Geographic Personas Blake Allmendinger, 2021-06 Geographic Personas explores how writers dancers actors imposters and con artists were influenced by three transformative factors population growth technology and literary realism that contributed to their personal reinvention during the late nineteenth and twentieth centuries in the American West Unhomely Wests Stephen Tatum,
