ENGLISH The development of the Church Order of the Dutch Reformed Church was obstructed by a court order during its 1862 Synod which provoked the formation of seperate synods Church members were prompted to restore church unity and therefore the Council of Churches was established Dr Jacobus Daniel Vorster as minister of the Dutch Reformed Church Tafelberg in Cape Town loved the subject on Church Law and obtained a MDiv degree with the title Church and church rule of the Voortrekkers while the title of his Th D reads The canonical development of the Cape Church under the VOC from 1653 to 1795 Allthogh the young Koot Vorster was very ill he was destined for greater things He became one of the greatest and most distinguished leaders of the D R C denomination For decades he ministered as secretary of the Circuit of Cape Town and as Actuary of the Cape Synod but he will always be remembered for his contribution to the establishing of the 1962 General Synod He was a master in his field He had the ability to distinguish between the principles of the different church law systems and to take them back to the Reformed canonical principles Vorster led the church in church law to reach the longstanding ideal of church unity He did his best to remove the Ordonance nr 7 of 1843 from the lawbook and to bring about a Church Order based on the Order of Dordt of 1618 1619 Vorster was chosen as Chairman of the Commission of Actuaries during the final preparation of the Order for the first General Synod He was also asked to submit the proposed Order at the various Synods and it was accepted with very little change vii With this Order he made a large contribution towards purification of the quiet infiltration of Collegialistic thinking expressions and use of language which entered the church law of the Cape Church through the General Reglement of 1816 and also affected the church law of the Northern churches The Church Order of 1962 was to supersede all previous orders and is in its final form the brainchild of dr Vorster With the establishing of the 1962 General Synod a hundred year old dream
