Critical Issues In Ecotourism 07 By Higham James Paperback 2007:

Critical Issues in Ecotourism James Higham, 2007-06-07 The first book to identify and comprehensively address hot issues in ecotourism Written by a team of pre eminent international contributors including the UK US Australia and New Zealand Incorporates cutting edge scientific research which exposes the crucial issues The Routledge Handbook of Tourism Marketing Scott McCabe, 2014-01-03 Tourism has often been described as being about selling dreams tourist experiences being conceptualized as purely a marketing confection a socially constructed need However the reality is that travel for leisure business meetings sports or visiting loved ones has grown to be a very real sector of the global economy requiring sophisticated business and marketing practices The Routledge Handbook of Tourism Marketing explores and critically evaluates the current debates and controversies inherent to the theoretical methodological and practical processes of marketing within this complex and multi sector industry It brings together leading specialists from range of disciplinary backgrounds and geographical regions to provide reflection and empirical research on this complex relationship The Handbook is divided in to nine inter related sections Part 1 deals with shifts in the context of marketing practice and our understanding of what constitutes value for tourists Part 2 explores macromarketing and tourism Part 3 deals with strategic issues Part 4 addresses recent advances in research Part 5 focuses on developments in tourist consumer behaviour Part 6 looks at micromarketing Part 7 moves on to destination marketing and branding issues Part 8 looks at the influence of technological change on tourism marketing and Part 9 explores future directions This timely book offers the reader a comprehensive synthesis of this sub discipline conveying the latest thinking and research It will provide an invaluable resource for all those with an interest in tourism and marketing encouraging dialogue across disciplinary boundaries and areas of study This is essential reading for Tourism students researchers and academics as well as those of Marketing Business Events Management and Hospitality Management Reducing Your Carbon Footprint On Vacation Greg Roza, 2008-08-15 Going on vacation From the planning stage on this book explains ways to have a green vacation Includes tips about things to do before leaving such as canceling the paper and turning down the heat Talks about environmentally friendly means of travel and things to do and avoid once reaching your destination Ecotourism is also explored

Sustainable Tourism on a Finite Planet Megan Epler Wood, 2017-02-28 Sustainable Tourism in the 21st Century provides students professionals and policy makers with a global overview of the growth of the tourism industry its impacts supply chains environmental management techniques and research requirements It provides input on how policy makers should approach the tourism industry in future in the fields of environment business governmental policy and sustainable development Direito do Turismo nos Territórios dos Povos Indígenas Rafaela Benevides Ferreira Machado, 2021-08-27 Diante da potencialidade turística o turismo nos territórios dos povos indígenas apresenta-se hoje como alternativa de desenvolvimento social e econômico Em face disso emerge a necessidade de uma efetiva proteção nesses locais sensíveis contra a exploração de atividades nocivas e até mesmo destrutivas. Por essa razão, o aproveitamento da potencialidade turística implica uma regulamentação de natureza jurídica sujeita a fundamentos que respeitem as particularidades dos povos indígenas, a autenticidade dos acervos culturais e a integridade ecológica.

Justice and Tourism Tazim Jamal, James Higham, 2021-11-17
Research related to justice and tourism is at an early stage in tourism studies. Challenges abound due to the complex scope and scale of tourism and thus the need to transcend disciplinary boundaries to inform a phenomenon that is intricately interwoven with place and people from local to global. The contributors to this book have drawn from diverse knowledge domains including but not limited to sociology, geography, business studies, urban planning and architecture, anthropology, philosophy and management studies to inform their research. From case-based empirical research to descriptive and theoretical approaches to justice and tourism, they tackle critical issues such as social justice and gender discrimination and racism, minority and worker rights, indigenous cultural and heritage justice, including special topics like food sovereignty while post-humanistic perspectives that call us to attend to non-human others to climate justice and sustainable futures. A rich array of principles is woven within and between the chapters. The various contributions illustrate the need for continuing collaboration among researchers in the Global North and Global South to enable diverse voices and worldviews to inform the pluralism of justice and tourism as arises in this book. The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Sustainable Tourism.

Critical Issues in Ecotourism James E. S. Higham, 2007
Identifies and addresses critical issues in ecotourism. This book provides the reader with contributions from international scholars that address issues of relevance incorporating scientific insights in specialised fields of research for example identifying and protecting critical habitats where tourists engage with endangered species.

Tourism, Recreation and Climate Change C. Michael Hall, James Higham, 2005-02-24
Climate change is one of the major issues facing us today and has been described as a threat greater than terrorism. As the world's largest industry, tourism both contributes to and will be dramatically affected by climate change. This is the first comprehensive book-level examination of the relationship between tourism and climate change of interest not only to students of tourism but to policy makers and the industry who will have to respond to the challenges posed.
