years of life would unfold one word at a time onto the pages of a riveting book for his adoring fans He fantasized about owning a bookstore where he could sell signed copies He could even picture his book standing upright and nestled against the others in the library with his name emblazoned on the spine in gold letters If only he knew what was inside those pages So taken was he with the idea of writing a book that would change the world he committed himself to the goal Changing the world may be difficult but his world would never be the same He would write his book but it would contain far more than his story alone He would include the stories of hundreds of characters and a hundred adventures It would become the greatest story ever told and would span the lives of every would be dreamer that ever knew Clifford Wendell However this story is my story my testament to one of the richest imaginations I have ever known I am the Princess of Mozambique and this is a story about my friend whom I loved who awakened the dreams of countless others He inspired me to believe in the fastidious nature of the perfect dream where our stories our dreams and our adventures are brought together blended just right so we can celebrate our lives and be joyful recipients of God s endless love With it we must love our neighbor love ourselves and dare to keep our dreams alive Get to know Clifford Wendell as I have known him and your next adventure may be more real than you ever expected Perhaps your story will become the greatest story ever told
